Sophomores Manhandle '42 Freshmen

With shoe polish on their hands and gory in their hearts, forty bloodthirsty sophomores gleefully manhandled ten hapless freshmen in the gym in the early morning. It was to be the opening game of the baseball season for the College aggregation, and the spectators were fully justified in their enthusiasm for what was widely considered the most thrilling event of the year.

The newly inaugurated Student Debating Society, representing the down-to-earth, practical approach, resoundingly defeated the Counseling Department, with a score of 21 to 19. The following day, the debate was repeated in the library, where students were encouraged to write essays on the subject of 'The Point of View in Debate.' The library was packed, and the debate was a resounding success.

Three new elevators were installed in the new building, and the students were thrilled to have access to the three floors without having to walk through the halls. The elevators were a great improvement over the old ones, and the students were eager to try them out.

The Peace Conference to Hold Referendum To Guage Student Opinion on April Strike; 1000 Hear Thomas and Thayer Speak

Gee—Wasn't Norman Thomas good last Thursday? Did he outshine that demon of collective action? And didn't he put on a show worthy of our Pauline Edwards auditorium?

Well, he did—yes and no. Thomas, master of oratorical technique, riposted, roared and bitterly denounced what he termed a nicety, horridly in his stirring—only Mr. Thomas forgot to give ways to maintain peace. Perhaps, it isn't cricket to ask anyone who speaks so nobly against war how to keep peace.

Mr. Thomas slammed Roosevelt as a "war-maker." Of course—Roosevelt is head of a capitalist country and there is no difference between...

Talk or Action

The recent details of a plan to have a peace movement in the United States was outlined by Sidney Reitman, who was invited to speak to the student body. The plan was to have a large peace movement in the United States, and the students were very interested in hearing about it.

The Collected Security vs. Isolation is a Topic Forum

One thousand students turned out at the Peace Forum, Thursday, to hear Russell, a Socialist Party member, speak. It was to be a forum of discussion...

The Board of Higher Education will hold a special meeting Wednesday evening to consider the request of the Student Council for higher wages and better working conditions. The Kappa Kappa and Beta Delta, the Union, Local 671, of the American Federation of Teachers, will meet with the committee to negotiate.

The meeting was called by Acting Chairman Charles T. Dorsey, who was present from letters to the Student Council charging a boycott of the lunchroom if those who had the power to negotiate the contract did not consult with the union. If the committee had no power to bar the union, the council had no power to bar the union.

In response to this, the Student Council asked to meet with the union representatives, holding that the council had agreed to meet with the union.

An Investigating Committee, consisting of Daniel Bell, Delta Sigma Pi, 21st Street, Brooklyn, New York, and Paul Weisman, Collective Security, and Edward Weistman, neutral, was selected to decide on Beckerman's competency. The committee is expected to report to the Student Council on Friday evening at 8 p.m.
