Administrative note

The photographs that make up the collection were created and stored by the Marketing and Communications Department until their donation to the Archives in 2020.

Scope and content

The Bronx Community College Marketing and Communications Department Photograph Collection consists of 8.5 linear feet of photographs taken by or at the behest of the Marketing and Communications Department of Bronx Community College. The original purpose of the photographs was to document events, students, and faculty of Bronx Community College for possible use in marketing materials such as advertisements. The most common subjects of the photographs are commencements and the annual Run the Bronx 10K Run event.

Organization

The collection is organized into three series with the second sub-divided into three subseries. They are:

Series I: Campus Buildings and Grounds

Series II: Events

Sub-series 1: commencements

Sub-series 2: campus events

Sub-series 3: student activities

Series III: Student and Faculty Life

Series Descriptions

Series I: Campus Buildings and Grounds

1 linear foot

The series consists of photographs of the exteriors of buildings and the grounds of the campus. Includes photographs depicting Stanford White's designed architecture at the Gould Memorial Library and the Hall of Fame for Great Americans.

Series II: Events

5.33 linear feet

This series consists of photographs of organized events held on the campus, including annual events such as commencement and the Run the Bronx 10K Run as well as single-day events organized by the college, student clubs and organizations.

The series is divided into four subseries:

Sub-series 1: Commencements

Sub-series 2: Campus events

Sub-series 3: Student activities

Series III: Student and Faculty Life

2.16 linear feet

The series contains photographs of faculty and students in contexts unconnected to organized events such as posed shots and groups shots on locations around the campus.
