PRESIDENTS' FILES

REES

Note: Mina Rees's files span her entire life, from her birth and family background to her death and subsequent events concerning her. They cover in considerable detail her eleven years (1961-1972) as the founder and chief administrator of CUNY's Graduate School, and in nearly equal detail her varied activities preceding and following those years. Additional material about her is in the files of her successors as GSUC president, Harold M. Proshansky and Frances Degen Horowitz (record groups V-B and V-C).

Since the papers rarely refer to organizations by their full names, this key to abbreviations is provided, but it may not be exhaustive, and some of the organizations may no longer exist or may have changed their names.

Presidents' Files / Rees

Articles, Speeches and Other Writings

The full texts of articles, speeches and other writings are filed chronologically in two loose-leaf binders, 1932-1971 and 1972-1988. Drafts, revisions and accompanying correspondence are, as a rule, not here but are filed in Correspondence—Subjects, under the appropriate headings, usually with copies of the final texts. However, for a few articles or speeches there may be neither a copy nor even any reference under the subject. Also, there is no certainty that this compilation includes absolutely all the articles, speeches and other writings of Rees's prolific career.

The last item in the second binder is a draft of a credo-like self-evaluation, undated, with no hint about what occasioned it or how or when it was to be used.

Available reprints or extra copies are filed with the originals in these binders.

Two books on mathematics that include contributions by Rees are shelved adjacent to the box containing the "Mathematics" document files. A book of essays, On the Meaning of the University, including an essay by Rees, is shelved adjacent to the box containing the "University of Utah" document files.

Correspondence—Names

Note: As stated earlier, correspondence is filed here only if there is no identifiable subject or if the named person is the subject. Otherwise, papers by or about specific persons are filed in Correspondence—Subjects under relevant headings denoting their fields of activity or the organizations to which they belonged. There are no cross-references from here or other indicators to that effect. There are brief notes about several persons when their files contain material of special interest, i.e., other than routine reports, appointments, and the like.

Many papers are missing: letters to which Dr. Rees replied, replies by her to letters received, replies by others to her letters, enclosures mentioned in correspondence, etc. Some of these may have been passed on to other people to handle; others may have been discarded deliberately in the course of weeding the files; still others may have been lost in packing up and moving the files.

 Note: 4 loose-leaf binders containing the transcript of an oral history interview of Weaver, conducted by Barbara Land at the Rockefeller Foundation in May-June 1961, are shelved next to the box containing the folders. Page 1 is missing and there is no cover sheet, but each of the 14 interview segments following the first has a heading with Land's name and the number, date and location of the interview. The segments begin on pp. 72, 133, 193, 240, 291, 354, 401, 468, 514, 581, 635, 665, 687, and 736, respectively.

Correspondence—Subjects

Note: As already stated, the papers here cover Rees's 11 years as head of the CUNY Graduate School as well as her career before 1961 and after her retirement in 1972. Many papers are missing: replies to Rees's letters and memoranda, her replies to those she received, documents alluded to, and the like. Some of these may have been channeled to others to handle, some may have been discarded in the normal course of file maintenance, and still others may have been discarded when Rees's papers were packed up and moved. Nevertheless, the collection gives a fascinating account of the emergence and growth of the CUNY Graduate School and of the achievements of the woman chiefly responsible for it.

Computers (6 folders) 1945-1966, 1969, 1972-1991, 1996

Correspondence, articles, reports and other papers dealing mainly with the early history of computers and data processing, the role of government agencies such as the National Bureau of Standards (NBS) and the Office of Naval Research (ONR), and Rees's contributions at the Applied Mathematics Panel (AMP) and the ONR. Publications by her and her colleagues may appear in the early years and be cited later in reviews and correspondence, or be filed among the latter. In the 1980s there were several anniversary celebrations at the National Computer Conference and IEEE and other meetings at which Rees was among the honored "pioneers." (Her "pioneer" plaque is in the Personal Materials subgroup, under "Awards," in the objects box). The earliest folder includes reports by scientists and mathematicians involved in pioneering work; photos.

Note: For closely related and overlapping material, see: Charles Babbage Foundation and Institute [above]. Mathematics. National Bureau of Standards. Office of Naval Research [all below]. A container with 2 reels of film of Richard Courant's "Convair" lectures, 1956, is shelved on the top shelf of the stack containing these folders

Cornell University 1974-1977

Correspondence about new humanities programs, including a Humanities, Science and Technology Unit; Rees was a member of the Visiting Committee to that unit

Cosmopolitan Club 1971, 1972, 1975, 1982, 1983

Correspondence about Rees's membership

Note: Rees's nomination or endorsement of others for membership is filed under each individual's name in the Correspondence—Names subgroup

Council of Graduate Schools in the United States (CGS) 1968, 1970-1971, 1978, 1985

Correspondence about meetings and programs; papers about Rees's election as chair, first woman in that post; typescript and hand-written draft of her address; photos of Rees with other board members (1968)

Hollins College 1950
Hostos Community College 1971
Hunter College (4 folders) 1920-1974, 1976, 1979
Papers covering Rees's relationships with Hunter, from undergraduate to alumna.
Folder 1 (1961-1974, 1976, 1979): includes Rees's address at commencement; photo (1972); papers about Hunter's centennial, award of President's Medal to Rees and 7 other alumnae, and her inclusion in the Hunter Hall of Fame (1969-1970)
Folder 2 (1952-1960): mostly correspondence about her return to Hunter as dean of faculty after government service
Folder 3 (1943-1951): papers mostly about her leaves of absence to serve on the Applied Mathematics Panel and in the Office of Naval Research; a few pertain to her role as professor of mathematics
Folder 4 (1920-1940): a few items about her role in the mathematics department, including a photograph of the department; the 1923 commencement program and photo of her class; the program of Oscar Wilde's play The Duchess of Padua, in which Rees played the duke; and the brochure for Hunter College's 50th anniversary

Hunter College—Class of 1923 1963, 1972-1973

Correspondence about the 40th reunion (1963) and the 50th (1972-1973), the reunion luncheons and class gifts; lists of class members, some annotated

Long-Range Policy and Planning 1968

Dean Proshansky's proposal for a planning committee; 3 connected reports by Rees on offering new doctoral programs, need for eminent faculty to promote research and scholarship, and need for financial support for doctoral students

Loyalist Studies and Publications 1971-1972

MacArthur Foundation (3 folders) 1979-1988

Rees was a consultant on establishing an experimental individual awards program and then served on the selection committee, probably to 1985. These folders contain correspondence about meetings, voluminous files on award nominees, and news releases and other papers on the foundation's programs, finances and administration

Macmillan, Inc. See Crowell-Collier & Macmillan, Inc. [above]

Marymount College – Tarrytown 1982, 1984

Master of Arts Degree 1967-1972

Correspondence about proposals to award M.A. degrees either “en route” to doctoral candidates or in a combined B.A.-M.A. program

Mathematical Association of America (MAA) 1951, 1962, 1972, 1974-1980, 1987

Correspondence about meetings, MAA award to Rees, Rees’s speech at the Jan. 1976 meeting, and plans to publish a history of mathematics during World War II.

Mathematics (8 folders) 1941-1989

Most of the material in the first 5 folders, from about 1975 on, deals with the history of mathematics during World War II and the years preceding and following it. It includes publications by Rees and others, plans for more extensive studies, drafts, source documents, correspondence about all of these, and related papers. Of special interest are Rees’s speech to the Mathematical Association of America in Jan. 1976 and her article in the American Mathematical Monthly of October 1980. (2 hard-cover books including, respectively, Rees’s speech and article are shelved adjacent to this box; so is a large envelope containing a 2008 Mathematical Association poster, “Women of Mathematics,” including Rees’s photo.) Many papers concern funding for the historical reviews and diminishing government support for research.

Folder 6: correspondence and other papers about Rees’s activities as head of the mathematics division of the Office of Naval Research (ONR) and her return to Hunter College; papers about mathematical problems; articles on career opportunities in mathematics; article by Rees on the nature of mathematics; article by John Kemeny on mathematics and the social sciences

Folder 7: correspondence and other papers about Rees’s employment by the Applied Mathematics Panel (AMP) and ONR; AMP project reports

Folder 8: Thornton Fry’s report on industrial mathematics (1941); draft of a paper on mathematics and the humanities, undated, probably by Rees; handwritten and typed notes, undated, probably by Rees, some of which may be related to that paper and others that evidently deal with other subjects

Note: There is considerable overlap between the historical material here and that filed under Charles Babbage Foundation, Computers, and Office of Naval Research (q.v.). Rees was a trustee and a member of the development committee and several advisory bodies. These folders comprise correspondence and reports on diverse projects of the foundation, personnel changes, finances, awards, and other foundation business, as well as annual reports, pamphlets and other publications; also, papers on Rees's contributions of securities to the foundation's endowment fund and her nominations of candidates for foundation officers and trustees; also certificate of the Board of Trustees resolution thanking Rees for her service as trustee and adviser to the board (1991)

Yeshiva University 1970

Personal Materials

Note: This subgroup comprises documentary as well as non-documentary materials (“objects”) that pertain to the personal, more private side of Rees’s life, though the dividing line between “professional” and “personal” is often blurred. (For example, when she combined business travel with vacations, references to the latter will be found not here but wherever the business aspect was filed.)

As everywhere else in the Archives, documents are filed in folders with appropriate titles, the folders are stored alphabetically in archival boxes, and the boxes are labeled with the titles of the first and last folders they contain and are shelved in the alphabetical order of these titles. Non-documentary materials and oversize documents are stored in other suitable containers. If these cannot be shelved with the archival boxes, they are shelved nearby, and this Guide contains requisite notes pointing to their location. Similar notes list papers or objects that may be on exhibit, and indicate their location.

Awards and Honors (3 folders of documents, 1 box of objects)

See also Honorary Degrees [below]. Names of institutions or organizations making the awards, and/or subjects involved, in the Correspondence—Subjects subgroup

Marriage
Correspondence about L. Brahdý's illness, last birthday, death, grave, and estate, (1977-1979); Rees's letter about sending a set of his medical journals to the Columbia University Health Sciences Library (1986). Note: For papers about the Brahdý Memorial Library at Columbia University, see "Columbia University" in the Correspondence—Subjects subgroup
Photos of Brahdý alone and with Rees (undated)
American Public Health Association certificate of his 40-year membership (1975); their marriage certificate and announcement (1955); typed resume of his education and career (1944?); copy of a newspaper clipping of a legal notice, March 31, 1915, about Leopold S. Brady changing his name to Brahdý

Miscellaneous Objects
This box contains: a wooden apple; a small, footed brass bowl; a stand with a large metal paper clip to hold letters etc.; a reproduction of a portrait by Albrecht Durer; a National Science Board plaque with Rees's name plate; a reel of magnetic tape, not labeled or otherwise identified; and a reel of motion picture film with an Ohio State University label, the title "Wattsie," and the date 1961
A wooden box on the top shelf contains Rees's paints, brushes and related items. 2 other boxes there contain 4 academic hoods and 2 academic gowns and caps
Note: Objects associated with awards (e.g., medals) are in a box adjacent to the box containing the "Awards and Honors" folders. Other selected objects are in a display case to the left of the library entrance. As of November, 2011, these were two self-portraits of Rees

Miscellaneous Papers 1957, 1968, 1970-1978, 1998
Mostly about purchases

Obituaries, Memorials, Will and Estate 1997-1998, 2002
Clipping from The New York Times about the appointment of a Russian professor to the mathematics chair endowed by Rees's $1.7-million bequest (2002); photocopy of 2 bequests to GSUC excerpted from her will (undated); articles in AMS Notices, (1998); photocopy of notice of probate of her will; Pres. Horowitz's memorandum to faculty, staff and students about Rees's death and e-mail about contributions; CUNY Board of Trustees resolution; obituary notices and articles; programs of memorials at graveside and GSUC; photocopy of her death certificate (all 1997)

Photographs—Portraits
21 portraits, arranged more or less chronologically, though many are undated. Most of the formal portraits would have been made in the 1960s and early 1970s. A matted oversize print of Arthur Avedon's portrait is behind this folder

Photographs—Portraits—Extra Copies
Multiple copies mostly of portraits made for major occasions; also, some copies in 4x6 format and remnants of a few contact sheets. Single copies may be given free of charge to authorized persons on request, but their publication in any medium should be accompanied by a credit line "Courtesy of the CUNY Graduate Center Archives"

Photographs—With Others

Snapshot of Rees with an unidentified woman, apparently at a vacation site, Aug. 1975. If the woman is her sister, Elsie, the photo would have been taken shortly before her death.

Note: other photos of Rees with other persons will be found under other headings in this Personal Materials group (e.g., Family, Honorary Degrees, Marriage) and under appropriate headings in the Correspondence—Subjects subgroup

Residence 1970-1971, 1973, 1984

Correspondence about Rees's 66th Street apartment, including arrangements to have CUNY lease it as "president's residence" while Rees was GSUC president

Travel 1970-1983, 1986, 1988

Correspondence with airlines, hotels and others for non-business travel

Note: Papers about travel to official meetings and other functions are under "Awards" and "Honorary Degrees" (above) and under appropriate institution and organization names in the Correspondence—Subjects subgroup, even if such travel was combined with holidays or vacations

Unidentified and Fragmentary Papers

12 items in which the writer or the addressee is unidentified, the subject matter or the context is not clear, or parts are missing. It is hoped that use of the Mina Rees collection will eventually yield some clues about these papers
