History of the Society for the Study of Women in the Renaissance

The Society for the Study of Women in the Renaissance was formed as a discussion group affiliated with the Renaissance Studies Certificate Program of the CUNY Graduate Center in 1987. Their first meeting on October 1, 1987 was a round table discussion of feminist scholarship on the study of Renaissance in the classroom. The society has monthly speakers, organizes major national conferences, and sponsors major publications.

Description

The majority of the collection is comprised of membership forms, correspondence, meeting materials, correspondence, and newsletters. Seven books were donated and added to the library for general circulation.
