PRESIDENT MICHELEN SCORES BUDGET CUTS

In a memorandum to the college community, President Nasry Michelen stated that the State Legislature's proposed budget cuts would have disastrous consequences for the City University of New York and the city's minority groups, and he urged that these cuts be restored. The President of Hostos Community College outlined steps that can be taken to offset the impending funds shortage.

Hostos Community College of the City University of New York, which opened in September 1970 with approximately 600 students, was established by the Board of Higher Education to serve the higher educational needs of the South Bronx.
