Beavers Fall Before Jasper Attack, 65-0

10,000 Watch Manhattan Backs Run Wild at Ebbets Field

By Artie Hauer

A hopelessly outclassed City College football team went down to a smashing defeat at the hands of a powerful Manhattan College eleven, 65-0, before ten thousand stunned spectators at Ebbets Field last Saturday. It was by far the worst defeat ever received by a Friedman-coached Beaver eleven.

Fighting desperately all the way, the greatly outweighed Beaver line was ripped to shreds time and again by the huge, hard charging Jasper forward wall. Attempting to utilize some of the intricate passing plays in which Friedman coached them all last week, the Lavender backs could never get started. The Manhattan linesmen were charging through with the ball and it was impossible for Mische, Rockwell, or Schmeny, to get off any well-timed passes with any degree of accuracy. As a result, the Beavers could complete no more than five passes out of 22 attempted for a total gain of 51 yards.

Passes Fail

This tells the story of the game as far as City was concerned. Coach Friedman knew beforehand that it would be practically impossible to gain through the Jasper line, against which such teams as Holy Cross and Louisiana State could make no appreciable headway. On the other hand, the Meehanmen had shown themselves to be weak on pass defense all season. Thus, the Beavers' only hope for victory was through the air. When their passing attack was smeared by the unstoppable Jasper forward wall, all their

Sigma Alpha Applications Must Be in November 8th

Applications for Sigma Alpha, sophomore honorary society of the School of Business, should be submitted to Albert Abramson in room 822 by Friday, November 8.

All lower juniors or those who have completed two years' work at the College, are eligible for election to membership. Applications should contain a list of extra-curricular activities.

Benny Friedman Speaks At '39 Chapel, Thursday

Benny Friedman, football coach, will speak at frosh chapel this Thursday at 12 o'clock. Upper classmen are invited to attend, but must sit in the balcony in 4N.

At the last chapel, the lower classmen heard Mr. Robert Taylor, the recorder, clarify some important points pertaining to the curriculum.

After explaining the courses leading to the several degrees offered at this center, Mr. Taylor described the requirements of the School.

Girls Plan Drive At Re-entry Forum

A proposal to present a resolution to the various student societies and councils in the school urging the readmission of women to the School of Business was presented by Mildred Grossman '37, girls' club president, at an open forum attended by 125 students held in 4 south. After submission of this proposal to the various societies, it is planned to present it to the Board of Higher Education.

Dr. Eva Luther Peters, women's personnel advisor, economist and former dean of Syracuse University addressed the forum last Thursday. She declared that

"Teacher and Worker" Charges Dean Spent Extra $20,000 For Machines

According to the October issue of the "Teacher and Worker" monthly publication of the Communist Party unit of teachers and other employees in City College, Dean Justin H. Moore has paid approximately $20,000 for the use of the tabulating machines used at registration time. However, when queried about this, Mr. Herbert Arkin, in charge of the machines, said that they were donated to the college by President Campbell of the International Business Machine Company, three years ago when Dean Moore took office.

In urging an open investigation the "Teacher and Worker" asserts that since it is rumored that the rental of these machines amounted to $20,000, it is desirable to know just how valuable these machines have been, exactly how much the rental has

Rival Quintets To Battle At A.A.Gym Show

An athletic show, unlike any previously presented, will be sponsored Friday evening at 8:30 p.m. by the Interclass Athletic Council.

An estimated crowd of 800 will witness an exhibition of basketball by two championship teams when the new Day Session Commerce five battles a crack Evening Session Commerce Squad in the first sport show attraction of the term. Tickets will be 10 cents with the "U" book and 25 cents for outsiders.

Seymour Schneidman, who was elevated from the captaincy of the Year's College Jayvee to a position on the varsity squad, will get together with "Ace" Goldstein, also on the varsity, to form an unbeatable combination on the offense. Sidney Katz and Harry Kovner, other members of the varsity will alternate with Bernard Fleigel, Danny Banks, Morris Fishman, Lenny Adelstein, Seymour Weinstein and Solomon Walamud, as capable a group as ever defended a basket.

Between the halves of the game, members of both teams will engage in an exhibition of foul and set shooting. Among the notables slated to attend are Nat Holman, varsity court coach, and Benny Friedman, Lavender grid mentor. Referees will be Mr. Ralph Liberti and Mr. John Ferguson of the hygiene department.

been, and what the details of the transaction were.

Upon being informed of the article, Dean Moore characterized the accusation as being ridiculous in view of the actual facts in the case.

It is the consensus of opinion that the reported item may have been a typographical error, $2000 instead of $20,000. As pointed out in THE TICKER's editorial, five hundred machines could be rented for the price Dean Moore is alleged to have paid for them.

In the supporting article, the "Teacher and Worker," describes Dean Moore's "brusque and domineering manner which has gained him the hostility of practically the entire staff at 23rd St."

Dean Moore is further characterized by the organ, as "running around during exam time like a Greek fury."

Mobilization Assembly Set For 11-12 Period

In response to the city-wide student demand for an adequate mobilization for peace, the Board of Higher Education, at its recent meeting, directed President Robinson and Dean Moore to suspend classes on Friday, November 8, from 11 to 12.

Dean Moore, in a letter to the Student Council, gave full authorization for the use of the college auditorium during the 11 o'clock recitation hour, and outlined plans for the assembly.

S. C. Backs Move On 'Oxford Pledge'

"I refuse to support the government of the United States in any war it may undertake." These words, the famous "Oxford Pledge," were one of five resolutions that the Student Council, at its meeting last Friday, requested Dean Moore to introduce to the student body at the Peace Mobilization, November 8.

Members of the council who favored introducing the Oxford Pledge were Scher '36, Silverstein '36, Kalish '37, Terestman '37, Kritzer '38 and Millstein '38. Those opposed to its introduction were Villarosso '36, Kornheiser '37 and Weizen '38.

The remaining three resolutions provide for student support of genuine neutrality legislation; passage of the Nye-Kvaale bill making the R. O. T. C. optional instead of compulsory in all colleges; a parade led by the Student Council to the Eternal Light, where a wreath will be laid; and the addition to the college curriculum of a course dealing with war and peace.

Use of the auditorium for one hour for the peace mobilization has been granted by Dean Moore with the permission of the Board of Higher Education. Dr. Moore has invited speakers from the faculty, the council, the Y.M.C.A., the Jewish Opinion Society and the Newman Club.

The Council endorsed the American Youth Act, which provides more adequate relief for students than is afforded under the present N. Y. A.

A delegate was sent to a conference at Washington Square College which was held to intensify the movement against America's entry into a Nazi Olympics.

BULLETIN

The Class of 1936 invites the student body to attend a rally in room 4N on Thursday, November 7, at 1 p.m. to discuss the formal senior prom to be held in the gym on Christmas Eve.

A student committee, consisting of Albert Abrams, Louis Scher, and Jack Kalish, president, vice-president, and secretary of the Student Council, respectively, and Alfred M. Stein, managing editor of THE TICKER, interviewed the dean concerning the proposed assembly. As a direct outcome of the meeting it was decided that a faculty member, the president of the Student Council, and one representative from the Y. M. C. A., the Newman Club, and the Jewish Opinion Society would be allowed to speak. Dr. Moore further pointed out that he would act as chairman. The dean also stated that the speakers' time would be limited, so that the meeting would be held in one hour.

The faculty member appointed by the dean is Dr. John Day Larkin, chairman of the government department. Dr. Larkin will speak on the recent Congressional neutrality legislation.

As a concession from the dean the three clubs mentioned in his letters were given permission to substitute outside speakers on the condition that they were members of the respective organizations. The Student Council has written to the dean asking him to permit resolutions from the floor.

Albert Abramson, president of the Student Council, will speak as representative of the student body. The commerce branch of the Y. M. C. A. is endeavoring to obtain a prominent outside speaker to represent their group. The Jewish Opinion Society has contacted Bernard Deussen, president of the Board of Admonition, and Rabbi Stephen S. Wise. As yet there are no definite speakers. The Newman Club has not made their speaker known as yet. If outside speakers are not available students will address the assembly.

The second meeting of the peace mobilization group was called at New York University last Friday evening at which time college representatives gave their reports. The mobilization is sponsored by the national organizations. The National Student Federation of America, the National Student Council of the Young Men's and Young Women's Christian Associations, the Student League for Industrial Democracy, the National Student League of the Committee on Militarism in Education, American League Against War and Fascism, the Middle Atlantic Division of the Intercollegiate Movement, the American Youth Congress, and the Intercollegiate Council.

Robert Brown, president of the uptown Student Council, reported that a student committee was discussing with President Robinson the question of rescheduling President Robinson's visit to the Board of Higher Education. Brooklyn College will have an anti-war parade in the Borough Hall section and Columbia University is expected to have a huge turnout. Approximately 35,000 students participated in the march and the anti-war demonstration.

Tickets, selling for sixty cents per couple and thirty-five cents for a "U" book, may be obtained at the Co-op store, the English Library, the Concert House, and from class representatives. The total expenses that the Student Council will incur for the dance will be $69. It was estimated at the last meeting of the Council.

Decided in the summer for the use of the gym, at 1000 Broadway, for an orchestra and a band, and a large hall.

Songsters to Give Concert and Series of Debates

A second concert at Staven Hall and a variety of other musical events will be the outstanding events in the College Club's fall program, according to Abraham Baker, president of the club.

The Lavender Quartet, composed of Abraham Baker, Walter Harry Braunstein, Joseph Walter Benner, Rich. Carbone, and Ben Blum, are shaping a collection of unique arrangements of popular melodies.

Last week, the group rehearsed in the newly decorated social rooming south.

Law Society Hears Speech By Prosecutor

Alexander H. Kaminsky, Assistant District Attorney of New York County, addressed the members of the Law Society at its weekly meeting in Room 823 Thursday afternoon.

Mr. Kaminsky, a City College alumnus, explained intricate details of routine of the District Attorney's office whenever a crime of any kind is committed in the city. Mr. Kaminsky pointed out that the D. A.'s office is divided into four distinct divisions: the Bureau of Complaint, of Homicide, of Appeals, of Special Sessions. Mr. Kaminsky also illustrated the antiquity of a few laws under which the present system is operated.

In concluding, Mr. Kaminsky said Sessions, Mr. Kaminsky also was partial in dealing with the activities of any public official, and that unless the man in question was on the right side of the papers, his public life would be worth little.

C.C.N.Y. vs. N.Y.U. The mere mention of an impending game between these two arch-enemies was wont to conjure up memories of fearful carnages, blood-splattered arenas, and hordes of the faithful cheering, stamping and yelling for the Alma Mater. Thoughts of everything else were forgotten by silver-haired alumni and youthful undergrads in the frenzied turbulence of such a contest. In unison, young and old, echoed that hallowed battle cry since the turn of the century. Beat N.Y.U.

And so it is that City College meets New York University on the gridiron this Saturday afternoon at the Yankee Stadium. The fervor of Lavender students may be dimmed by the more burning issues of social unrest and war. N. Y. U. may have cast aside its program of de-emphasis and remain at this writing, undefeated and untied this season. Yet that innate tradition of former Lavender color-bearers still goals on the 1935 edition of the City College football team.

Despite the fact that we have waded into the team for some of its earlier performances, and wasted it for some bone-head play, the desire to win the game has never been more pregnant, more deeply-rooted in us than now.

In the past, when some fortuitous break enabled the Beavers to score a first down, or complete a pass, we were never overly enthusiastic. Through long experience we knew that someone would come through with a prize runner and nullify the gain thus made. Just before the end of the period Manhattan pushed over its fourth touchdown. 'City' Falls Before Jasper Onslaught, 65-0

Chick Meehan evidently sent his squad out with instructions to score for all they were worth, for the Jasper backs ran wild all afternoon. They amassed no less than 27 points in the first quarter.

Following the kick-off to City, the Beavers could make no headway, and Michel punted to the Kelly Green 35-yard line. Jim Whalen, fleet Jasper back, went to the Lavender 25 and then passed to Connel, Manhattan right end, who went over for the first score. Sabatella's attempted placement was blocked.

Punt Is Blocked

A few minutes later Chris Michel attempted to punt from his own 20. Connel blocked the kick, scooped it up before it touched the ground, and kept going over the goal line for a touchdown. Sabatella converted.

Manhattan again kicked off. The Beaver backs hit the Jasper line for no gain and Michel dropped back to punt. Again his kick was blocked when the City linesmen were unable to withstand the charge of the Manhattan forward wall. The Meehanmen recovered the pigskin on the City seven. A pass, Whalen to Byrne, into the end zone, netted the Jaspers their third score. Sabatella converted.

Just before the end of the period Manhattan pushed over its fourth touchdown. As a result, the Kelly Greenmen took the lead, 14-0.

Plenty Pugilistic Positions Procurable; Ponderous, Powerful Pounders Prized

The fistcut men who have been training assiduously for the coming boxing season will find two positions that have retarded their progress. They will vote this week for a manager and a captain.

A lack of candidates for the 172, 118 and 155-pound divisions is the chief cause of coach Sirutis' worry. Dick Sweet, his only nominee for the 118-pound class put on weight which makes him ineligible.

The team now consists of Tony Caserta 135 pounds, Joe Siegal, 145 pounds, Bloom 155 pounds, Cy Zamos 165 pounds and Bill Silverman and Bernie Rappaport in the heavyweight division. Candidates will still be accepted for the 112, 118 and 155 pound divisions.

Clonion Makes Initial Appearance

The Clonion, City College journal of student opinion made its initial appearance of the semester last Wednesday, devoted to an effort to combat the threats of impending war and Fascism.

An analysis of the European war crisis in an article entitled "World Politics and Ethiopia" explores the place of prominence among the magazine's features. To those unfamiliar with the subject it is quite an interesting discussion. We are not acquainted with the author, William Mendelsohn, but we can wager that he reads the newspapers each and every day.

The awakening of the college student to the problems of the world at large, described by James Wechsler, former editor of the Columbia Spectator, in a book "Revolt on the Campus" is reviewed in an article entitled "The Campus Sees red," by a writer who prefers to be known merely as "A. S."

All in all the Clonion provides a hearty nickle's worth for fifteen minutes of anybody's time.
