The Library-Media Resources Center is pleased to present you with the most recent edition of the LaGuardia Listing of Faculty Publications. In it you will find proof of the vitality and commitment to scholarship of the LaGuardia Faculty. You will also see the diversity of interests and expertise of your colleagues.

Thanks to those who took the time to report on the fruits of your labors. Thanks also to Dorothy Lopez and Eddie Greissle, who labored long hours at the microcomputer reaping this bumper crop of information.

Time does not stand still, nor does the productivity of our faculty. Please send information on your latest projects to me in the Library. Also, if you know of a fellow faculty member who has published, but perishes the thought of reporting it out of modesty, please encourage him or her to share the wealth. I hope to make this as comprehensive a listing as possible.

Corrections, additions and suggestions for the improvement of this Listing are hereby solicited. My extension is 5456.
