"IT HAPPENED IN BROOKLYN!"

by Ben DuBose

Brooklyn has had a long and colorful history. Each week, in this space, we will try to bring you a bit of trivia about our home town.

October 28, 1936

This marks the 50th Anniversary of the laying of the cornerstone at Brooklyn College

The present campus was acquired by the City in 1935 at a cost of $1,600,000 and the cornerstone of the gymnasium was secured in place by

President, Franklin D. Roosevelt

Ben DuBose is President of the Canarsie Historical Society and Executive Director, Amersfort-Flatlands Development Corporation.
