REGISTRAR APPOINTED AT HOSTOS

The Board of Higher Education appointed Mr. Robert Goldstein Registrar and Director of Admissions Services of Hostos Community College on November 23, 1970. Mr. Goldstein's appointment became effective on November 16.

In spite of all the problems involved in starting a new college, Bob Goldstein finds the atmosphere at Hostos "unbelievably friendly." He says he is fascinated with Hostos' dynamic "systems approach" to education and is hopeful that the College's utilization of computer assistance will free College administrators to engage in more personal contact with students and staff.

The new registrar has a special interest in adult continuing education and is hopeful that in the future Hostos will be able to play a significant role in attracting larger numbers of veterans, union members, and employees from large companies such as New York Telephone. He believes close ties should be maintained between Admissions Services and local churches and community councils.

Prior to joining Hostos, Bob Goldstein was Associate Registrar at Lehman College, a four-year unit of CUNY with a student enrollment of 11,000. From 1965 to 1969 he was Assistant Registrar at Hunter-Lehman (Hunter in the Bronx became Lehman College in 1968). He is presently Chairman of the Council of Registrars and Offices of Admissions of CUNY.

Formerly a teacher of geography and social studies at Paul Hoffman J.H.S. (P.S. 45) in the Bronx, Bob has maintained his interest in this area by lecturing from time to time at Lehman College in the Department of Geology and Geography.

The new registrar holds a B.A. degree in international affairs from Hunter College and an M.A. degree in social studies from Lehman College.

He is married and the father of two children, a girl, Janet, 5, and a boy, Laurence, 2. His wife, Myra, teaches at P.S. 146, Cauldwell Avenue and 163rd Street in the Bronx.
