Biographical Note

Sol Taylor, Class of '53, attended Brooklyn College from 1949 to 1953. He became a college professor upon receiving a doctorate in education from the University of Southern California. Dr. Taylor also writes a column regularly on a wide variety of numismatic topics for The Signal newspaper in Santa Clarita, California. He resides in Sherman Oaks, Calif.

Scope and Content Note

This small collection of photographs was donated by Dr. Sol Taylor, Class of '53. These images were taken during the time Dr. Taylor attended Brooklyn College as an undergraduate student, between the years of 1949 and 1953.

Some photographs Dr. Taylor donated were taken on the grounds of Brooklyn College; several others are from the college's Country Fair in the early 1950s. There are also photographs from the Euclid House Alumni gatherings (in 1955 and in 1960).
