University Librarian: (Curtis Kendrick)

- University has new contract for binding – Marsha Clark will head the taskforce.
- Institutional Repository – There will be a temporary project manager, and a Digital Resources Librarian will be hired.
- Aleph V.18 coming
- CUNY entering into Master Plan (2008-12 Strategic Plan) coordinated by Academic Affairs.
- There are efforts to make it more transparent – there will be a survey on CULIBS – good for feedback.
- Instructional space allocations are being considered.
- Appreciation for LACUNY’s role (bringing people together) noted in Council of Chiefs meeting.
- Opened forum to questions/comments – which included:
 - o New contract needs to limit teaching hours
 - o Need for ranking system for support staff – CUNY-wide
 - o Strategic plans needed for each library

Old Business:

- Issue of equity for library faculty in CUNY, similar to SUNY’s situation - interest in an Ad Hoc committee in association with Legislative Action – issues include contract, release time, annual leave, research time, etc – for “greater equity if not total parity” – suggestions re formulae for organizing ref desk/teaching schedules, and other aspects of logistics to achieve goals – looking for models for usability – Jane Fitzpatrick, Roman Santillan, William Gibbons, Ann Leonard are investigating.

New Business:

- Everyone should compile a list of reassignment leaves for academic year 2006-7 including number of weeks requested vs received, reasons why hrs received were reduced (if available from chiefs) – Deadline June 30.
- Spring Membership Program – tentative date: June 8 Brooklyn – tentative themes: Reports on Prof Reassignment/Release time, etc - - Libraries in McCarthy era.
- Motion to increase LACUNY scholarship to $500 – motion seconded, approved.

Meeting Adjourned at 4:30PM.
