

April 12, 1942.

Dear Mrs. Robinton:

I wonder if we can manage a meeting of the Employment Committee for this coming Thursday; a brief one at which the present status of two items of agenda could be presented, beginning at 12.45.

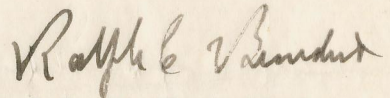

What I have in mind is to report the status of the Committee report of last semester's activities, and the revised form of Miss Morgan's subcommittee report. I am anxious to get these moving. The first is stalled in part because my first attempt to get it before the general personnel committee ^{found} ~~had~~ less than a quorum present, and the informal discussion of those present indicated an obstacle or two to its continued advancement in present form.

Maybe a better idea would be to try to get together with our "subcommittee" first, but I am hopeful even a short meeting might iron out difficulties sufficiently so that I could try again to get the general personnel committee together on it in time to get it to the Council for the May meeting.

We can meet in Rm. 2316 Ingersoll, if Council room is taken.

Sincerely,

Ralph C. Benedict
