1. Minutes

The Minutes of the meeting of March 24, 1983 were approved with the following corrections of typographical errors and omissions:

- A. Page 1: Faculty present "Howard Galub" should read "Howard Fuld, Arthur Galub".
- B. Page 2: Item 3 A (2) after "$37 million" add "shortfall has been reduced".
- C. Page 3: Eliminate first line of type (which is repeated from previous page).
- D. Page 3: Item F (2) after "elected by" correct to read "the appropriate governing body, not selected".

2. Committee Reports:

A. University Faculty Senate: Professors Jean Kolliner and Gil Riley reported that at the April 19th meeting of the UFS, Chancellor Murphy said:

- 1) He is very much opposed to the Solomon Amendment (which would deny financial aid to students who fail to register for the draft) but the Board of Trustees had not yet acted on it.
- 2) He is concerned about the growing pressure on the University from the corporate world.
- 3) He feels that a defense to the attack on tenure is a vigilant, active faculty.

- B. Curriculum Committee: A written report dated April 21, 1983 of actions taken by the Committee at its April 12th and April 19th meetings, was received and is attached.

Motion: To accept the Curriculum Committee report of April 21, 1983 was unanimously approved.

Motion: To approve the course "Introduction to Law Office Management" was unanimously approved.

- C. Committee on Governance and Elections: Professor Tyson said that nominating ballots will shortly be sent to faculty for the Faculty Senate election effective July 1, 1983. The Faculty Council elections will be in September. Incumbents names will not be shown on the ballots. Professor Tyson also invited faculty and students to submit changes or revisions they would like to see to the present governance plan. These will then be reported to the Senate and if they pass will go to a referendum of faculty and students.

D. University Student Senate:

1. Miss Crystal Hassell reported that at the April 25th meeting of the Board of Trustees, a new by-law relating to the Student activity fee, will be voted on.
2. Mr. David Seraphin reported:
 - a) On March 23rd there was a student rally in Albany at which some 2000 students protested the tuition increase.
 - b) At the Board of Trustees Student Affairs Committee meeting on April 7th, the students voiced their disappointment with the wording of the resolution passed the previous day by the Board of Trustees Public Policy Committee against the Solomon Amendment.

E. Student Activities Committee: A written report dated April 20, 1983 was submitted by the Chairperson, Tracey Tann and is attached.

3. Adjournment:

There being no further business, the meeting voted unanimously to adjourn at 5:20 P.M.

Respectfully submitted,

Maureen O'Riordan
Secretary

BRONX COMMUNITY COLLEGE
of the City University of New York

TO: Dr. Jack Prince, Chairman of the College Senate Committee
FROM: Tracey A. Tann, Chairperson of the Student Activities Committee
RE: Report of the Student Activities Committee
DATE: April 20, 1983

Tracey A. Tann

Presently, the Student Activities Committee is involved in the following events. They are as follows:

1. The Personal Development Club, and the Computer Science Club are applying for charter under I.O.C. They were advised to put forth their club's constitutions, and a list of the charter members, along with the presence of their faculty advisors to our next meeting.
2. The ad hoc committee formed for the authorization of off-campus events will have a report due at our next meeting, stating the policies and procedures regarding all events that involve contractual arrangements with agents or groups outside of the college.
3. The ad hoc committee for the drafting of a new Student Council Constitution will have a report ready for our next committee meeting.
4. The Office of Student Activities will inform the appropriate office and officers of I.O.C. to closely follow the guidelines for preparation and submission of documents for club or college-wide status to the committee of Student Activities.
5. In order to facilitate the Student Council elections for 1983, and as well as to increase the participation of student candidates and the student body, the committee charged the chair to draft a letter to the Committee on Governance & Elections asking it to outline timetables and procedures in consultation with Student-Council. for holding elections
6. Our next meeting is on Friday, April 22, 1983 at 2:00 p.m. in Gould Student Center, room 312.
