Dear Dr. Boylan,

As a representative of the student body of the Women's Division may I tender you our sincerest congratulations on your inauguration as the first president of Brooklyn College. May I also express the gratitude of that student body for the interest you have manifested in its welfare. In the midst of your exacting duties you never hesitated to be generous with your time and assistance.

And if it is not presumptuous of me to speak for myself, I should like to indicate my personal esteem
