LACUNY IRRT decided to share the information about help for Haitian libraries with CUNY librarians through CULIBS. The following statement was distributed through the listserv.

Haiti Relief
News about the disastrous earthquake that devastated Haiti no longer occupies front pages of newspapers, but the earthquake’s effects continue to disrupt everyday life of the Haitian people. Haitian libraries were not spared by this natural disaster and many have sustained heavy damage. LACUNY IRRT would like to express our deep concern and sympathy to Haitian librarians and encourage all CUNY librarians to support them by making a donation for the cause of rebuilding Haitian libraries.

Libraries without borders: http://www.librarieswithoutborders.org/home.php

ALA Haiti fund: ALA established Library Relief Fund to help rebuild libraries and archives in Haiti. ALA, acting on a resolution adopted by its Council on Jan. 19 during the ALA’s Midwinter Meeting, has created the “Haiti Library Relief Fund” to collect monetary donations to help rebuild libraries and archives that were destroyed or damaged during the devastating earthquake on Jan. 12. Donations can be made by credit card or check through www.al.org/haiti.

Though there is a strong interest in donating books directly to Haiti immediately, but libraries in Haiti are not in a position to receive books until further notice. Your books, however, can still help libraries in Haiti. Better World Books (BWB), an affinity partner of ALA, has set up a special program to receive and raise money for Haitian libraries from the books you donate. For more information on how to donate, please visit the Better World Books site (opens a new page). ALA is a member of the U.S. Committee of the Blue Shield (USCBS), the organization that is the equivalent of the Red Cross for cultural heritage and preservation. The USCBS belongs to the larger Associations of National Committees of the Blue Shield (ANCBS). The Blue Shield wants to support recovery, restoration and repair measures necessary to rebuild libraries, archives, museums, monuments and sites. Therefore it is calling upon archivists, restorers, curators, librarians, architects and other experts to register online as a volunteer.

FLA: same as ALA works with Blue Shield organization
