2-19-2018

The new federal budget and higher ed

Aldemaro Romero Jr.
CUNY Bernard M Baruch College

How does access to this work benefit you? Let us know!
Follow this and additional works at: https://academicworks.cuny.edu/bb_pubs
Part of the Higher Education Commons

Recommended Citation
The new federal budget and higher ed

The Roman Empire was one of the largest and most powerful empires in human history, despite its many failings. It is often said that the causes of why that empire fell were numerous and varied, but not limited to, the invasion by the Barbarians along with its declining traditions, values, and military overall. Gilchrist will then graduate to student teaching at Vernon, is in her last semester, and says, “It’s nice to see that at 23 and say, ‘What could I do differently?’ It’s nice to see that at 23, how could that have been better?”

It’s nice to see someone young coming into and so energetic and nice to see someone young coming into and so energetic and nice to see someone young coming into the story was to learn the story, Gilchrist dis-

The Congressional agreement, titled “Master’s in Public Education Act of 2018,” includes $44 billion for what they call "alternative-licensure programs that help teachers enter and stay in the teaching profession despite barriers to entry. The agreement also includes provisions to expand and improve teacher education programs, as well as provisions to support the development of new and innovative teacher preparation models.

Enrollment in Kentucky has declined due to the fiscal crisis and the recession. For example, the fiscal 2019 projections for the University of Kentucky are lower than the fiscal 2010 projections, which were substantially higher. The projections are based on a forecast of economic growth and are subject to change. The projections are also subject to the uncertainty of events, such as changes in state and federal policies, that could affect the University’s financial condition.

The Lincoln School Foundation was honored for its support of local businesses in 2017. The foundation’s mission is to support educational programs and provide opportunities for students in the Lincoln School District.

the church is 153 years old. “We’ve been able to serve through us.”

The agenda included the following items: the appointment of a full-time music ministry team, the establishment of a local music ministry team, and the establishment of a local music ministry team that works to eradicate homelessness. He is also on our Committee to make recommendations for the hon-

Goshen Elementary first grade teacher Pam Jarvis works with Henry Bailey on a project.

Dr. Aldermoro Romero Jr. Left: From Academia

real means. Also, as reported in this column regarding how the new tax code was targeting private institutions of higher education for ideological reasons by taxing their endowments, there were some unmentioned victims of this intellectualized move. The Congressional agreement, titled “Master’s in Public Education Act of 2018,” includes $44 billion for what they call "alternative-licensure programs that help teachers enter and stay in the teaching profession despite barriers to entry. The agreement also includes provisions to expand and improve teacher education programs, as well as provisions to support the development of new and innovative teacher preparation models.

Enrollment in Kentucky has declined due to the fiscal crisis and the recession. For example, the fiscal 2019 projections for the University of Kentucky are lower than the fiscal 2010 projections, which were substantially higher. The projections are based on a forecast of economic growth and are subject to change. The projections are also subject to the uncertainty of events, such as changes in state and federal policies, that could affect the University’s financial condition.

The Lincoln School Foundation was honored for its support of local businesses in 2017. The foundation’s mission is to support educational programs and provide opportunities for students in the Lincoln School District.

the church is 153 years old. “We’ve been able to serve through us.”

The agenda included the following items: the appointment of a full-time music ministry team, the establishment of a local music ministry team, and the establishment of a local music ministry team that works to eradicate homelessness. He is also on our Committee to make recommendations for the hon-

Wesley Chapel works with the SAK program provides free lunches to children over the summer. “We’ve worked with the pan-

As of Tuesday the department’s new Facebook page had 272 likes and 269 followers. The page was rolled out in late January and the new folks are coming in at a steady rate.

There has been a lot of activity,” Ellis said.

Officials say that they do not allow outside comments, but messages can be sent to Animal Control officials.

In both committees the approval of the purchase was unanimous. The sheriff’s department wants to replace its current cameras. A long-time crossing guard who has lived and worked in Edwardsville for years will also be honored.

The Lincoln School Foundation will be honored for its support of local businesses in 2017. The foundation’s mission is to support educational programs and provide opportunities for students in the Lincoln School District.

Wesley Chapel works with the SAK program provides free lunches to children over the summer. “We’ve worked with the pan-

As of Tuesday the department’s new Facebook page had 272 likes and 269 followers. The page was rolled out in late January and the new folks are coming in at a steady rate.

There has been a lot of activity,” Ellis said.

Officials say that they do not allow outside comments, but messages can be sent to Animal Control officials.

In both committees the approval of the purchase was unanimous. The sheriff’s department wants to replace its current cameras. A long-time crossing guard who has lived and worked in Edwardsville for years will also be honored.

The Lincoln School Foundation will be honored for its support of local businesses in 2017. The foundation’s mission is to support educational programs and provide opportunities for students in the Lincoln School District.

Wesley Chapel works with the SAK program provides free lunches to children over the summer. “We’ve worked with the pan-

As of Tuesday the department’s new Facebook page had 272 likes and 269 followers. The page was rolled out in late January and the new folks are coming in at a steady rate.

There has been a lot of activity,” Ellis said.

Officials say that they do not allow outside comments, but messages can be sent to Animal Control officials.

In both committees the approval of the purchase was unanimous. The sheriff’s department wants to replace its current cameras. A long-time crossing guard who has lived and worked in Edwardsville for years will also be honored.

The Lincoln School Foundation will be honored for its support of local businesses in 2017. The foundation’s mission is to support educational programs and provide opportunities for students in the Lincoln School District.

Wesley Chapel works with the SAK program provides free lunches to children over the summe