2001 and future of higher education

Aldemaro Romero Jr.
CUNY Bernard M Baruch College

How does access to this work benefit you? Let us know!
Follow this and additional works at: https://academicworks.cuny.edu/bb_pubs

Part of the Higher Education Commons

Recommended Citation
Detective's gun taken for duration of probe

Detectives said Wednesday that Blakely's murder continues to be the top priority of the Sikeston Police Department.

SIKESTON, Mo. (AP) — A southeast Missouri detective is taking his personal handgun for the duration of the investigation into Blakely's murder.

Sikeston City Manager Jonathan Welle said due to the lengthy process of purchasing a new fire engine, the city's request for an investigation will not be immediately responded to.

As discussion came to a close, alderman Douglass said that Blakely's murder continues to be the top priority of the Sikeston Police Department.

“We really need to get moving on this as soon as possible,” Douglass said Wednesday that Blakely's murder continues to be the top priority of the Sikeston Police Department.

“We're working on it, but we're not doing it as quickly as we would like,” Welle said. “We're trying to get this thing done as quickly as possible.”

Continued from Page 1A

The new fire engine will be new and built on Main Street.

The Glen Carbon Fire Protection District held a public hearing and allow taxpayers to discuss issues or ask questions about the proposal.

Continued from Page 1A

Smith said that where she stays through earning her law degree via the G.I. Bill, and parceled her medical degree in the medical center while serving as an active member of the National Guard, as well as serving as a source of sexual assault counseling.

Still, above all, Smith says some of the most important things she learned in college were not teaching or studying.

“My husband hasn't necessar-