

City University of New York (CUNY)

CUNY Academic Works

---

Women's Studies Quarterly

Archives and Special Collections

---

1976

Margaret Fuller Mystery Continues

The Feminist Press

How does access to this work benefit you? Let us know!

More information about this work at: <https://academicworks.cuny.edu/wsq/171>

Discover additional works at: <https://academicworks.cuny.edu>

---

This work is made publicly available by the City University of New York (CUNY).
Contact: AcademicWorks@cuny.edu

MARGARET FULLER MYSTERY CONTINUES

In the Winter 1976 issue, we challenged our readers to identify the woman in picture one, whom we had incorrectly captioned Margaret Fuller. We have received six entries to date: three identifying the woman as Alice B. Toklas, one identifying her as Helen Keller and two identifying her as Dame Edith Sitwell. One reader thinks we are still wrong and that the second picture below is not Margaret Fuller at all, but Bette Davis! We, however, were not convinced by any of the guesses. We print pictures of them all below so that you can decide for yourself. In the meantime, we and the picture researchers at the New York Public Library are still searching.

Clockwise, the women are: the Mystery Woman, Margaret Fuller, Bette Davis, Edith Sitwell, Helen Keller, Alice B. Toklas.

CONFERENCES

Hemispheric Conference for Women '76. Miami Beach, Florida, August 5-8, 1976. In accordance with the conference theme, "Women of the Western Hemisphere: Their Interdependent Destiny," the purpose will be to explore mutual goals of development, assess societal changes and develop programs for future action to benefit all people of the Americas. Write Monna Lighte, McAllister Hotel, No. 200, 10 Biscayne Blvd., Miami, FL 33132.

The Mature Woman in Transition. Manchester, New Hampshire, September 22-24, 1976. This is the second annual conference of the Institute for the Study of Women in Transition and will address such issues as employment, the displaced homemaker, continuing education. Write The Institute, 5 Market St., Portsmouth, NH 03801.

Womanscope: Focus on Women in Higher Education. Old Dominion University, Norfolk, Virginia, October 16, 1976. A grass roots, get acquainted conference for administrators and academics in higher education in eastern Virginia, Womanscope will focus on three areas: continuing education, women's studies and women's caucuses. Write Patricia Hyer, School of Continuing Studies, Old Dominion University, Norfolk, VA 23508.

Potential for Progress: Bias-free Education. Portland, Oregon, October 4-5, 1976. A regional conference for educators sponsored by Multi-State Project Awareness, a leadership project addressing sex discrimination issues in education. Write Beth Voorhees Wilke, State Office of Public Instruction, Old Capitol Bldg, Olympia, WA 98504.