IN THIS ISSUE:

2 Editorial:
Everywoman's Educational Health on the Road to Equity

3 Readers' Speakout:
On "Elitism" and the Gifted
On "Unfeminist Behavior" at the Convention
On Class Bias and the NWSA

5 Writing It All Down:
An Overview of the Second NWSA Convention

7 Encounter with American Feminism: A Muslim Woman's View of Two Conferences

9 Concerns of Women's Studies Programs at the NWSA Convention: A Graduate Student's Perspective

10 HQ 1100—HQ 1870—A Librarian's View of the Second NWSA Convention

11 Problems and Pleasures of PreK-12 Involvement in NWSA: A Report after the 1980 Convention

12 Scholarships for Teachers at the NWSA Convention

13 A Journalist's Personal View of the NWSA Convention
   By Ann Colbert

14 Poetry Reading: Third World Women Poets
   "Of Course"
   By Mary E. Gibson
   "Love Story"
   By Antonia Quintana Pigno
   "Noni Daylight Remembers the Future"
   By Joy Harjo

15 A Report on Research Sessions at the 1980 NWSA Convention
   By Charol Shakeshaft

16 Building Coalitions between Women's Studies and Black Studies: What Are the Realities?
   By Ann Cathey Carver

19 Special Feature: The Second Annual NWSA Convention

20 From the National Office
   By Elaine Reuben

24 Lesbian Caucus News

25 A Gay and Lesbian Curriculum/Anthology
   By Shelley Anderson and Polly Kellogg

25 The Lesbian-Feminist Study Clearinghouse
   By Coralyn Fontaine

26 NWSA Convention '81: "Women and Racism"
   By Norma J. Cobbs and Pat Miller

27 NWSA Calendar

27 NWSA Service Learning Project News

29 The Astraea Foundation: A New Resource for Women
   By Nancy Dean

30 Newsbriefs