Kudos to VP Coleman, Dean Taylor, Wayne Murphy, Jim Verdichio, and their entire staff for managing this period so well with the support from SVC Alan Dobrin's Office.
 - c. The President is thankful that our campus community has not suffered fatal casualties in the aftermath of Hurricane Sandy; CUNY and BCC have assisted in relief efforts. There are ongoing efforts to reach out to members of the campus community who may be in need of aid. The President has requested that the Senate activate its Community Outreach Committee, in order to assess the current situation, make recommendations to establish a special emergency fund, and establish a process for distributing those funds to members of the campus community who are negatively impacted.

- d. The Dedication of the Daniel Hauben collection was Sunday, November 4. It was a tremendous success, with over 200 people in attendance. Thanks to the faculty and staff who made it happen. Daniel Hauben, and his wife Judith, thanked BCC for allowing the event to occur as scheduled.

7. Announcements and Reports

a. Chairperson, Vice-Chairperson, and Faculty Council Chairperson

- i. A. McInerney reported on the activities of the Senate Executive Committee, which addressed the hurricane response and academic calendar issues. A. McInerney met with President Berotte Joseph to discuss governance issues, First Year Seminars, and compensatory issues on October 28 and he has requested a follow-up meeting.
- ii. At T. Warren's reminder, A. McInerney asked for suggestions from the floor on how to help with the hurricane recovery effort. H. Skinner suggested asking students in their classes for suggestions. M. Gannon noted that some of her students work as first responders; she suggested leniency when dealing with students adversely impacted by the hurricane. Refer any members of the BCC community in-need to the President's Office. M. Coleman noted that the ultimate goal is to create a disaster fund in the Foundation that would be available now and in the future for additional disaster events. Checks should be made out to BCC Foundation Relief Effort and can be given to the bursar's office. A. McInerney also noted that if faculty members have not heard from any students since the hurricane, they should reach out to those students.
- iii. M. Pita noted that Faculty Council did not meet because of Hurricane Sandy.

b. Vice-Presidents and Deans

- i. VP D. Hadaller noted that L. Montenegro and E. Roman are the two people responsible for uploading courses into the (Pathways) Sharepoint system. As a response to the days lost to the hurricane, the proposed revised class schedule has been submitted to CUNY, but has not yet been approved by CUNY or the NYS Education Department. Only 84 classes are affected by the Tuesday schedule on Sunday, December 16. T. Durante asked about room conflicts; M. Siegel noted that they are currently checking for room changes. Finally, the withdrawal date has been extended to November 16.
- ii. VP M. Coleman recognized that there are some problems with heat on campus. She noted that some of this is systemic and is part of the construction process. M. Coleman asked the body to please report any complete loss of heat (non-working radiators, etc.) to PPS at x5234, immediately.
