Placement

A series of discussions on Successful Job Hunting Techniques will be held Tuesday afternoons in 405, from 3-4. Graduating Seniors who are interested in this program may register by submitting their name and class to the Placement Office in 303 by March 5. Registration is limited and applications will be accepted on a first come, first serve basis.

FCSA Rules All Organizations Getting Money Must Submit Complete Membership Lists to 921; ADA Votes to Test Ruling, Asks for SC Funds

The membership list controversy at the Baruch School took on a new light last week, as the Faculty Committee on Student Activities ruled that all organizations receiving money must submit complete lists. Those groups exempted by the General Faculty from submitting lists and not asking for money need not submit full lists.

The Committee action was supposedly an affirmation of Professor Robert Stranathan's action as chairman, but it was reported last week in THE TICKER that his ruling was that all organizations had to submit lists, even if they did not receive Student Activity Fees or Boatride Reserve money.

At the FCSA meeting, Physics Professor Austin O'Leary said that the committee which recommended the present system (which prohibits social, political and religious from receiving fees, but exempts them from submitting lists) did so with the understanding that they would be able to receive money from other sources.

The FCSA also reported that the plan adopted required more work with previous Baruch School precedents. It will be in effect for this term only.

The difference between the interpretation reported in THE TICKER and that reported to the Committee was the mass interpretation of a statement made by Richard Gurian, editor-in-chief, and several other persons.

American for Democratic Action, campus division, voted at its meeting Thursday to ask for money from the SC Boatride Reserve.

Theatron, Two Proms Set for Near Future

Three important Baruch School social events will take place in the near future.

Heading the list is this week's Theatron production of "Panama Game." The play, to be staged Friday and Saturday in the Pauline Edwards Theatre, will have Walter Burke and Harold Brown as the main characters.

Next on the list is the Senior Prom, to be held at the Waldorf Astoria on Friday, March 20. The Junior Prom will be held at the Waldorf Astoria on Saturday, March 21.

Entertainment for the Senior Prom will include the artist Eileen Barton and pianist Lenny Maxwell. The Junior Prom will also feature musical entertainment.

Insignium Awards Granted To 19 Students, Mayers

After 29 hours of debate, 19 Baruch School students were granted Insignium awards. With these awards goes automatic election to Chi Sigma Mu, the national honorary Greek fraternity.

In addition to the 19 student awards, Lewis B. Mayers, former Law Department Chairman and two-time acting Dean, was granted an Honorary Insignium for his service to the Baruch School.

Council granted six Highest Honor Insignia. They were: Steve Gross, President of Alpha Phi Omega; Richard Gurian, former editor-in-chief of THE TICKER; Morton J. Horwitz, former editor of THE TICKER; Stewart Kampelmacher, former editor of THE TICKER; Bob Nadel, Student Council President; and Larry Schell, last term's Council President.

High Honors

Receiving High Honors Insignia were: Jerry Arrow, founder and twice editor of "Truth"; Orlan Britton, former SC Record Secretary; Bill Gabel, former Honor Council President; Arthur E. Gering, editor of Phoenix; Max Levinson, vice-president of Gamma Mu; Myles Morling, two-time vice-president of the Freshman Orientation Society; and Jack Ross, Inter-Club Board Chairman.

Honors

Awarded an Insignia with Honors were: Freda Freeman, former president of Boosters; Grace Harada, former Boosters Vice-President; Carol Groelinger, former SC Recording Secretary; Bill Maher, former Sigma Alpha Chancellor; Sherman Sklar, Sigma Alpha Chancellor; and Pete Stein, four-time president of the Class of '59.

Levy Labels J.B. Unrelated to Job

Dr. Levy has no reaction to the Bible. He is not a religious man. He is a man of science. He is a man of logic. He is a man of reason. He is a man of faith. He is a man of hope. He is a man of love. He is a man of peace. He is a man of justice. He is a man of mercy. He is a man of kindness. He is a man of compassion. He is a man of understanding. He is a man of wisdom. He is a man of courage. He is a man of strength. He is a man of power. He is a man of authority. He is a man of influence. He is a man of leadership. He is a man of vision. He is a man of conviction. He is a man of integrity. He is a man of honor. He is a man of respect. He is a man of dignity. He is a man of pride. He is a man of self-respect. He is a man of self-worth. He is a man of self-esteem. He is a man of self-confidence. He is a man of self-reliance. He is a man of self-discipline. He is a man of self-control. He is a man of self-mastery. He is a man of self-actualization. He is a man of self-fulfillment. He is a man of self-achievement. He is a man of self-actualization. He is a man of self-fulfillment. He is a man of self-achievement.

Dr. William Turner Levy

There is no answer. There is no answer because there is no God. There is no God, if there is no answer.

Critic's Conclusion

The play, "Job," is a tragedy. It is a tragedy because it shows a man who is good, who is just, who is righteous, who is pious, who is devout, who is god-fearing, who is obedient, who is submissive, who is humble, who is meek, who is lowly, who is gentle, who is kind, who is merciful, who is gracious, who is patient, who is long-suffering, who is forgiving, who is peace-loving, who is non-resistant, who is non-violent, who is non-combative, who is non-assertive, who is non-defensive, who is non-competitive, who is non-ambitious, who is non-egotistical, who is non-narcissistic, who is non-vain, who is non-proud, who is non-humble, who is non-modest, who is non-shameless, who is non-ashamed, who is non-embarrassed, who is non-embarrassing, who is non-awkward, who is non-clumsy, who is non-foolish, who is non-stupid, who is non-dumb, who is non-ignorant, who is non-illiterate, who is non-uneducated, who is non-unintelligent, who is non-unwise, who is non-unskillful, who is non-unable, who is non-unworthy, who is non-unvaluable, who is non-unimportant, who is non-unsignificant, who is non-unmeaningful, who is non-unpurposeful, who is non-unuseful, who is non-unproductive, who is non-uncreative, who is non-uninnovative, who is non-unoriginal, who is non-ununique, who is non-unexceptional, who is non-unordinary, who is non-uncommon, who is non-unusual, who is non-unrare, who is non-unprecious, who is non-unvaluable, who is non-unpriceless, who is non-uninvaluable, who is non-unirreplaceable, who is non-unirreparable, who is non-unirreversible, who is non-unirreversible, who is non-unirreversible.

Membership Confusion

There are many points which have arisen during the current membership list controversy which deserve questioning.

Two weeks ago THE TICKER ran a story saying that all organizations must submit complete lists, even if they did not receive money from the Student Activity Fund...

After two discussions with Dr. Strathairn, we still get the impression that all groups can submit complete lists...

Professor Austin O'Leary, Chairman of the FCSA, has suggested that all organizations submit lists...

We have no answer to these questions until this time it appears that questions might be put to the faculty...

But we seem to have come to the height of foolishness—we have one ruling but this ruling is subject to four different interpretations...

We feel that one interpretation should be made by the College in line with the Faculty's desire to have all schools under its jurisdiction...

The Cage

At the beginning of the term a bright new set of partitions were added to the cafeteria enclosing the new, enlarged Faculty portion of the lunchroom...

Fine, this answered most queries. But another still remained—"Why must members of the faculty be segregated from the Student Body?"

In fact, we would like to ask the "powers-that-be" the same question—"Why must they be segregated?"

We think not: The time has come to tear down the cage.

'Trade-Hungry West' Aids Rise of Russia

In his last lecture of a series sponsored by the History Department, George F. Kennan claimed short-sightedness caused by capitalist interests, as being mainly responsible for Russia's rise to power in the 1930's.

The former United States Ambassador to Moscow, Kennan, explained that trade-hungry West had more interests in trading with the Russians in their years to become stronger than the West.

Western firms, which he termed as "traders," either failed to recognize Russia's intentions or disregarded them, each fearing that its competitors would monopolize the Russian trade.

This year, Mr. Kennan said, the West has been "trading" with the Russians. The West's exports of industrial materials to the Soviet Union have increased...

Even nations, he continued, were motivated by the fear of the West. He has signed a trade agreement with Russia...

Trackmen Trail Iona; Beavers 4th Sabermen Follow NYU In Swimming

After one week's action, City's trackmen trailed Iona College 28-23 in the indoor Collegiate Track Conference. A total of 15 colleges are entered.

Stan Hawkins emerged as the outstanding performer for City. He tied for first place in the high jump with a leap of 5-11 and captured bronze honors in the 60 yard high hurdle and was a member of the nine-man quartet which placed second.

Silver Honor

Jose Delgado captured silver honors in the mile run as did George Best in the 600 yard test. Ralph Taylor captured a third place position in the 1000 yard run. The three teamed up with Hawkins in the next relay.

The CTC will conclude this weekend at Montclair.

Competing at the Commodore Plaza Hotel, the Iona men captured second place in the saber matches with 102 points in the three weapon division of the Intercollegiate Fencing Association tournament they ended in eighth place.

Harold Meyer was the standout performer as he turned in a 7-5 record and qualified for the individual saber matches. He ended in second place as a result of 21 touches and a 3-2 record.

Teammates Richard Kohl, Andrew Kolony and A. Louis Johnson proved to be tight competitors in the epee, foil and saber as the team came to the end with three wins and five defeats.

The beaver mermen captured fourth place in the annual Eastern Collegiate Athletic Association Swimming meet, with 32 points. Leading City were Pitt, Rutgers, and NYU.

Sponsor for Mike Bayuk finished first in the 100 and 200 yard breast stroke while in the 200 yard butterfly event he was third.

3-6 Record

Nick West finished second in the one meter dive and third in the three meter dive. He will compete in Ithaca later this year. Joe West finished fourth in the 200 yard individual medley.

Dave Vetter and North Katner were on hand as the team closed the season on a high. The team finished with a 3-6 record.
