Most people are familiar with the names of famous composers like Beethoven and Bach. Less known are the names of famous female composers, although you are more likely to hear their music in your schools or church. That’s because they are largely unknown.

One of the concerns that we heard a lot was that there is a lack of diversity in the music they are producing. As a result, there are fewer opportunities to see it happen in Maryville."

"This is not only about the immediate crisis," saidlake County Sheriff Michael J. Quigley. "This is not about the immediate crisis, but we must address this issue because of the economic situation."
