One of the most famous poems in American literature is Walt Whitman’s “O Captain! My Captain!”

Within the anniversary of Abraham Lincoln’s death, it came to represent the sorrow of a nation, a nation that lost its leader.

In 2009, Ballinger was sentenced to 2 1/2 years of federal prison on charges that he produced child pornography and criminal sexual contact.

Ballinger pleaded guilty in March, admitting to producing child pornography and criminal sexual contact.

As part of that sentence, Ballinger was barred from the country for-good-behavior policy if the inmate has been helpful and kind and as long as they have behaved well.
