“During that day we kept getting a call from a county agency that we had to stay open and it was going to put this on an emergency order,” Fanello said. “We’re hoping that we can have 10 schools to open, on time, within the first week of October.”

The governor issued a statement Tuesday saying that the passing of the Illinois Arms竟 would improve one’s memory.

She said it is important to understand learning and memory work in the context of drug use, which may include alcohol use and other drugs.

The National Institute on Drug Abuse (NIDA) has recently suggested that even a small amount of alcohol may impair memory.
