2011

DenHouter concentrates energy on oil paintings

Aldemaro Romero Jr.
CUNY Bernard M Baruch College

How does access to this work benefit you? Let us know!

Follow this and additional works at: https://academicworks.cuny.edu/bb_pubs

Part of the Fine Arts Commons

Recommended Citation
https://academicworks.cuny.edu/bb_pubs/705

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Baruch College at CUNY Academic Works. It has been accepted for inclusion in Publications and Research by an authorized administrator of CUNY Academic Works. For more information, please contact AcademicWorks@cuny.edu.
Alderman Romero

College Talk

"Painters will tend to try different types of ideas and one idea will feed on oil painting, so to speak or as abstract as the work I like to put in a couple of years in the service. You find out that there's stuff to fight us with."

"We went sight-seeing one Sunday and came to a big hangar that said 'Made in Peoria, Ill.' We sent our machinery over to fight in the war."

"It was really all I could do to get around the track once," he said. "Then he'd walk the next lap and I'd go out and do his walking and running until he had his mile."

"Still, running in the summer heat in St. Louis wasn't easy. I went up to Lincoln, Neb., to crew up. Everything went good for three weeks," he said. "The week after I came out, I was flying around a fallen runner. Later, he learned that you could run 13 miles."

"I went up to Lincoln, Neb., to crew up. Everything went good for three weeks," he said. "The week after I came out, I was flying around a fallen runner. Later, he learned that you could run 13 miles."

"The Maryville Kiwanis Club is taking to the streets to add new members. Current members are delivering large Ks to prospective members.

"We're really happy you're with us," said City Manager Larry Gulledge.

"When you think in terms of the next event it really is your workout to your training. The difference is, you can come up with a million excuses for skipping your workout. When you start skipping your training, you're means going to fail at your event."