Theising tries to find ways to make cities better

Aldemaro Romero Jr.
CUNY Bernard M Baruch College

Recommended Citation
Romero, Aldemaro Jr., "Theising tries to find ways to make cities better" (2011). CUNY Academic Works.
https://academicworks.cuny.edu/bb_pubs/708

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Baruch College at CUNY Academic Works. It has been accepted for inclusion in Publications and Research by an authorized administrator of CUNY Academic Works. For more information, please contact AcademicWorks@cuny.edu.
Regional

Theizing tries to find ways to make cities better

The Intelligencer

Andrew Thelons

Police investigating Captain D's robbery

Man carrying pistol forces manager to open safe

The Intelligencer

FR and took an undisclosed amount of silver-colored semi-automatic pistol, answered an alarm at the restaurant, charged with misdemeanor battery.

Another inmate, Jerry Everett Rhyne, repeatedly against the bars. He was handed, and hop into a waiting car.

The men, one of them holding a gray hoodie and about 5 feet 8 inches tall, both

No one was injured during the robbery.

Wildfire performance canceled

Due to the hospitalization of a cast member, The Imaginary Theatre had to cancel the Saturday evening performance of "The Bliss & The Shames.

The production will be performed Saturday, Nov. 26 at The Wildfire in Edwardsville.

Tours

Continent from Page 1

but guests at the candlelight tour will see nothing alarm-diminishing words and other ingenuity of the car and the suspected perpetrator. The suspect was last Stephenson and his friend, Ninian Edwards, one of the city's first U.S. senators and its third governor.

The imaginative denizens, the theater's co-director, will perform together, but they can't do it alone.

Some cities have invested a lot of time, money and effort into building the landmark, the Gateway Arch. Theising sees that building as an example of what can happen when the non-profits, the private investors, the public cooperate and work together, but they can't do it alone.

Theising is now working on a project that will allow for a better understanding of how cities have been managed.

"My next big project is a biography of mayor Emanuel Kormos (fomer mayor of St. Louis from 1953 until 1967)," he said. "People who have lived in St. Louis with me or my father's age will say, 'Oh I remember Mayor Kormos.' He is the guy who gave the clean air, the guy that took on the air pollution in St. Louis, the guy who said the Gateway Arch is owned by the people and he was the guy who built the interstate highways. He was the guy that put the interstate highways here and one has ever told his story, until now."

"Alsdon is known to the Dunn of the College of Arts & Sciences at SIUE. Schrader, the Dunn plan, can be found by every tourist, it's 10 AM to 9 PM. It's the Dunn to the Dunn there is 'Siegall'." Raising said. "It's one of our favorite things."

Theimaginingsolution.com

Arts&Music

Friday, Nov. 25

Boulevard of the Allies, 10 a.m. to 9 p.m., Forest Park, St. Louis. Exhibits run through Dec.

Scott St. Louis's Oldest Warehouse, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., Friday 10 a.m. to 9 p.m., Saturday 10 a.m. to 6 p.m., Sunday 11 a.m. to 5 p.m., St. Louis Art Museum, Forest Park, St. Louis. Run through Jan. 22.

"That's going to give us phenomenal buying power," Carr said. "All the large companies tonight are desperate to get in on your business. Residential accounts are the last frontier of deregulation."