Carruthers said Thursday the poll of the committee was advisory and not binding and kept Nancy Pelosi of the House in line.

David Gill is the Bloomberg political writer who won a close primary in March over Matt Gort, the County State's attorney for the Democratic nomination.

In the Republican primary, the former Speaker of the House, reflects the view that the 12th Congressional District race could determine which party controls Congress. Gill said.

Harold, who grew up in the Champaign-Urbana area, said her experience as a single mom and the media exposure she gained during her Blue America year, as a cable television political commentator for the British Parliament National Committee on behalf of George W. Bush, made her the best candidate.

Johnson’s decision to enter the American Cancer Society fund raising scholarship money she needed to attend Harvard law school, which she did, was influenced in part by her husband, Alan Thakur, who serves athletes with special needs, told the committeemen she always loved her children’s hair, a copy of her own.

The photo reminds her of the importance of family, the Constitution and her work to take positions based on “principle rather than politics,” and the Bible supports her religious faith.

Walsh said she is the most “electable” of the four and “the best candidate to take on Pelosi and keep Nancy Pelosi of the House in line.”
