The Goddard School in Edwardsville will host an afternoon circus event Saturday that will bring all of the traditional circus activities to the Goddard School's Annex, located at 921 Arbor Vitae Street.

The event will feature a performer, a pair of costumed performers, a petting zoo, an educational presentation by a tour consultant, a tour of the school's offices, a tour of the Goddard School's offices, and a tour of the school's offices.

The event will be open to the public and is free of charge. Donations can be made through the Goddard School's website to support the cause. To make an appointment for the event, please contact 618-457-6000.

Gardens prepare for Pond-O-Rama weekend

Metro East gardeners will be showing off their best designs and ideas with Pond-O-Rama weekend, which is open to the public.

Gardeners will be showcasing their ponds, gardens, and other outdoor elements, as well as their usual plants and flowers.

The event will be held on Saturday and Sunday, with activities such as pond tours, garden tours, and more.

The event is free to the public, and all proceeds will go to support the Goddard School.

SIUE plans dedication

Southern Illinois University Edwardsville will dedicate the "Builders of the University Plaza" on Monday.

The dedication will also feature the work of artists who have helped build SIUE into a nationally recognized metropolitan university.

The event will be held at the University Plaza, which is located at the southeast corner of the quad between 11 a.m. and 1 p.m. Employees will be invited to attend.

"To everyone, who will be here or have access to the plaza and to those new toward finding that same path, I want to express my great appreciation for your contributions on behalf of our university," Chancellor Vaughn Vandergriff said.

The Faculty and Staff Appreciation Day is sponsored by the Chancellor's Office, SIUE Foundation, and the Office of Community Engagement.

The dedication will feature speeches, music, and a ribbon-cutting ceremony.
