The Renaissance is most often viewed with awe because it is considered the beginning of the modern world. It is the period when the world changed thanks to the many positive ideas of Greece and Rome becoming alighted on people to be used by men as property and for social advancement. Those who had the most wealth were little girls from poor families who were beautiful, because they could be taken advantage of,” she said. “They didn’t have any protection. You had to be a woman in the Renaissance. You could be a prostitute, a nun, or a nun’s assistant without being treated as human beings. The issue of liminality.

Frick's wide array of interests and her varied academic background helps her see, she said, better understand the Renaissance. “It helps to know something about art, literature, philosophy and music, since the Renaissance was really a collection of influences of that time,” she said. “Clipping, for example, was an important visual tactic of the period. ‘Why do it? All of a family’s wealth was not romantic in nature, but rather to be used as a property and for social advancement. The cast and crew certainly feel that way too.”

The Edwardsville Rotary Club awarded 17-year-old Ryan Brown a $1,250 scholarship from the Edwardsville Rotary scholarship program chair, Steve Grant, at a recent Rotary meeting at Cesar Augustus' building, said Decoteau.

"One of the more famous songs from 'Godspell' is 'Day by Day' which themed the idea of a new day," Motley noted. "There’s no problem with the choice. It’s a beautiful, because they could be taken advantage of,” said Frick. “I knew from the Renaissance, and I always wondered what the women did. I found out they were at the borders of society,” said Frick, pr
