"We're required to essay this, to say we're going to get flood insurance," he told the commission.

A resolution covering the requirement was approved and, a 9-0 vote, the 12-inch route was opened.

Rotary seeks applicants for fellowship program

For the Rotary

The Rotary International is now accepting applications for its Global Peace Fellowship for 2014. The District Governor Thomas H. Pippenger has announced.

The Rotary Peace Fellowship is an educational program that provides professional training and academic training in conflict resolution, peace building, human rights, and the law. The fellowship aims to prepare leaders to address global challenges and promote peace and security.

The fellowship is open to mid-career professionals, including experienced lawyers, human rights advocates, and academic leaders.

For additional information about the fellowship or to request assistance, contact the Rotary Peace Fellowship Director at peace@ rotary.org or visit rotary.org/peacefellows.
