Lauderdale by the Sea, Edwardsville, learned about a course being offered by the Cinema Studies department at Southern Illinois University Edwardsville, and decided to take advantage of the opportunity.

\"It seemed like a unique experience,\" said Gunderson, a native of Alton. \"It never occurred to me that I would get to go, so when the opportunity came up I said, \"Yes!\"\"

Gunderson said that he was most surprised that the Cuban society is not as open and nice and open toward Americans despite the fact that they didn't seem angry or anything like that. They joked about having problems with their water/trash collection bill so it is available to everyone.
