Save Illinois History plans events

For the Intelligencer

Save Illinois History, a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization, was founded in 2008 to preserve the historic sites of Illinois. The organization, which is run by a group of history living journalists and their families, recently celebrated its 50th anniversary. Currently, the group is focused on Historic Fort de Chartres, which is located in St. Clair County. The group is working to help the site meet its specifications. What are the site’s specifications? On Saturday only. Discount tickets can be purchased online at www.saveillinoishistory.com.

The registration fee for for the Music Festival & Craft Fair will feature five直辖 different bands and artists, including Swing Squares and Giant City. The events will be held at Historic Fort de Chartres and will be held from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. on October 5. Other upcoming events are:
• VIP Dinner on October 4, an 18th Century—era dinner for the Northern Irish parliament building, where the guests will be provided with an 18th Century—era dinner
