Maryanne Michie, co-founder of the Madison County Historical Society and the State to rebuid the shelter at Fort Pierre Menard Historic Site.

- Purchased alarm system, generator and look for Fort Kaskaskia Historical Site.
- Purchased van for Used dock replacement at Cahokia Court House.
- Received a grant from State of Illinois for Civil War website.

- Became a Chairperson of the 36th Annual Fort Kaskaskia Music & Craft Fair that will be held on September 21 & 22 at Fort Kaskaskia State Historic Site.
- Brigman concluded “we believe the Music & Craft Fair will be bigger and better than ever this year. The music is a mix of Traditional, Updated, and New Blues, Country, Folk. Some of the bands will be very traditional and some will give a new spin to old favorites with some current hits, too. This is an event that benefits many local community groups as food vendors and crafters too—0% profit, clean entertainment for the whole family.”
- The Fort Kaskaskia Music Festival & Craft Fair will feature five (5) different bands each day, including Swampy and Giant City. Shows from the Celtic area, and Beaucoup from Scotland, the Creeks from St. Louis, Zydeco from Illinois, Trout Out, Beale Street Band, from St. Louis, The Heart’s Brothers, Hayseed Dixie Band from Kentucky, The Boys from Crawdad, TN, and Dead Soldiers from Memphis, TN. The bands perform in the outdoor amphitheater.

- The material would include many from prior years and some new from the event. Brigman continued “we have very particular events that have only hand-made items from quality vendors. There will also raffle spaces available, contact Brigman at susie@saveillinoishistory.com.”

- The Fête at the Fort (also known as the Brew Fest) on October 5 is a day of beer tasting at Historic Fort de Chartres with at least 12 different beers from St. Louis, and New Orleans. Tickets on the website.

- VIP Dinner on October 4, an 18th Century-style evening by candlelight with a gourmet meal, beer and wine, and live music at Historic Fort de Chartres (period clothing not required).

- A Pet Fair on October 4 as a day of pet lovers will be able to enjoy the pet fair for their pets. Our four-legged friends are invited to come out and enjoy the Pet Fair as they plan to have vendors, other crafters spaces available; contact Susie Brigman at crafter spaces available; contact Susie Brigman at susie@saveillinoishistory.com.”

- Another upcoming event is Oct 18 from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Visitor Center in Collinsville, IL. The event will include live music, public, with parking and admission is $10.

- Jobs Plus 13 Chairperson, Public Work Grant, Employment and Training, County, 2013, and 2014, is a day of free music, food, and parking at the Fort de Chartres (period clothing not required).
