SIUE School of Nursing receive grant

The Southern Illinois University Edwardsville School of Nursing has received a Health Resources and Services Administration (HRSA) grant totaling $237,977 to support the School of Nursing's Student Achievement Program (SNAP). The SNAP is a targeted, innovative initiative that addresses the critical need for early intervention in diverse populations of professional nursing students. As a result of the SNAP, students are able to learn and succeed in the program.

The SNAP program builds on the students' existing skills and provides early intervention for students in need of assistance. The goal of the SNAP is to provide early intervention for students who are at-risk for dropping out of the program. The SNAP program is designed to provide academic and personal support services to students who are at-risk for dropping out of the program. The SNAP program is designed to provide academic and personal support services to students who are at-risk for dropping out of the program.
