2015

It’s time to discuss race relations on campuses

Aldemaro Romero Jr.
CUNY Bernard M Baruch College

How does access to this work benefit you? Let us know!
Follow this and additional works at: https://academicworks.cuny.edu/bb_pubs

Part of the Higher Education Commons

Recommended Citation
Romero, Aldemaro Jr., "It’s time to discuss race relations on campuses" (2015). CUNY Academic Works.
https://academicworks.cuny.edu/bb_pubs/809

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Baruch College at CUNY Academic Works. It has been accepted for inclusion in Publications and Research by an authorized administrator of CUNY Academic Works. For more information, please contact AcademicWorks@cuny.edu.
SALON

Letters from Academia

An analysis of the de facto end of the war on drugs and the beginning of “War on Drugs 2.0”

By Edward M. Norman

Roosevelt High School is located within the Arkansas City school district.

The school district is one of the four largest districts in the state of Arkansas. It serves approximately 5,500 students in grades K-12. The district's mascot is the Rocket, and the school colors are red and white. Roosevelt High School offers a variety of academic and extracurricular programs, including Advanced Placement courses, dual enrollment with Central Arkansas Community College, and a variety of sports teams. In recent years, the school has implemented several initiatives aimed at improving student outcomes, such as a focus on personalized learning and the integration of technology into the classroom. The school also participates in various community service projects, including food drives and clothing drives. Roosevelt High School is committed to providing a safe and supportive learning environment for all students.