Poetry still has the power to carry the day

Aldemaro Romero Jr.
CUNY Bernard M Baruch College

2014

Recommended Citation
Romero, Aldemaro Jr., "Poetry still has the power to carry the day" (2014). CUNY Academic Works.
https://academicworks.cuny.edu/bb_pubs/834

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Baruch College at CUNY Academic Works. It has been accepted for inclusion in Publications and Research by an authorized administrator of CUNY Academic Works. For more information, please contact AcademicWorks@cuny.edu.
Poetry still has the power to carry the day

Poetry is seen by many as a forgotten art, but the fact is that it is still relevant today. Many poets are still writing and publishing their work, and there are even poetry competitions and awards given out, helping to keep the art form alive.

Dr. Joshua Kryah and his book, “We Are Starved”

Kryah, a poet from St. Louis, Missouri, explains that the creative process behind writing in his poem “We Are Starved,” Kryah explained that the creative process behind writing in this lyrical form is motivated by personal experiences and reflections upon its location in the university. In referring to his poem “We Are Starved,” Kryah explained that such a poem came fairly quick to him. “I was spending a lot of time remembering my childhood in St. Louis. There is a meat packing plant at the top of the street where I grew up and outside that plant, there is an old city dump used to park animals,” said.

Three large garland strands that are suspended over streets and roadways will be purchased with the donation, which is the result of proceeds from the annual Glen Carbon Homecoming. By 2010, the committee donated $17,000 to the village for its Streetscape project in Old Town.

“The Phantom of the Opera” performances will take place in the EHS auditorium on April 4, at 7:30 p.m.; April 5 at 7:30 p.m.; and April 6, at 2 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. The students love this show and are excited to be performing it. The show is being performed as a benefit for one of EHS’s Homecoming dance sponsors, Willow’s Warriors.

For the information

The entire Willow’s Warriors campaign to help raise money for Willow’s Warriors, which is a local non-profit organization, was started from people and her family and friends.

“The Hampton Inn located at 6723 Heritage Crossing, off Route 157, was named March Business of the Month.”

The Hampton Inn, which opened in September, 2007, currently employs 17 people.

Health occupations

On March 13 and 14, 16 EHS Health Occupations students traveled to Decatur to compete in State Leadership Conference. As a team, the students placed in their events and against a total of 726 Illinois Health Occupations students, brought back the following accolades: (Top ten finishers in the state were awarded titles of “State Scholar”, “State Scholar Honorable Mention”, “State Scholar Finalist” or “State Scholar Nominee”)

-Display (9th place), Team of: Hannah McLaughlin, Taylor Robinson, Jacob Vandever, and Lavanya Komarraju
- Katty Deininger and Alyssa Grettler in Biomedical Debate (7th place), Team of
- Kassie Klaus and Taylor Ward in Health Career Awareness (8th place), Team of
- Joseph Ebel, Clark Anderson, Zachary Fults, and Molly Boyles in HOSA Bowl
- Andrea Schloer and Shalon King in HOSA Bowl
- Whitney Bishop and Lauren Brown in HOSA Bowl
- Andrew Slade and Amanda Neri in HOSA Bowl
- Megan Bailey and Chelsea Bruce in Biomedical Debate

On March 13 and 14, 16 EHS Health Occupations students traveled to Decatur to compete in State Leadership Conference. As a team, the students placed in their events and against a total of 726 Illinois Health Occupations students, brought back the following accolades: (Top ten finishers in the state were awarded titles of “State Scholar”, “State Scholar Honorable Mention”, “State Scholar Finalist” or “State Scholar Nominee”)

-Display (9th place), Team of: Hannah McLaughlin, Taylor Robinson, Jacob Vandever, and Lavanya Komarraju
- Katty Deininger and Alyssa Grettler in Biomedical Debate (7th place)
- Kassie Klaus and Taylor Ward in Health Career Awareness (8th place)

On March 13 and 14, 16 EHS Health Occupations students traveled to Decatur to compete in State Leadership Conference. As a team, the students placed in their events and against a total of 726 Illinois Health Occupations students, brought back the following accolades: (Top ten finishers in the state were awarded titles of “State Scholar”, “State Scholar Honorable Mention”, “State Scholar Finalist” or “State Scholar Nominee”)

-Display (9th place), Team of: Hannah McLaughlin, Taylor Robinson, Jacob Vandever, and Lavanya Komarraju
- Katty Deininger and Alyssa Grettler in Biomedical Debate (7th place)
- Kassie Klaus and Taylor Ward in Health Career Awareness (8th place)

On March 13 and 14, 16 EHS Health Occupations students traveled to Decatur to compete in State Leadership Conference. As a team, the students placed in their events and against a total of 726 Illinois Health Occupations students, brought back the following accolades: (Top ten finishers in the state were awarded titles of “State Scholar”, “State Scholar Honorable Mention”, “State Scholar Finalist” or “State Scholar Nominee”)

-Display (9th place), Team of: Hannah McLaughlin, Taylor Robinson, Jacob Vandever, and Lavanya Komarraju
- Katty Deininger and Alyssa Grettler in Biomedical Debate (7th place)
- Kassie Klaus and Taylor Ward in Health Career Awareness (8th place)

On March 13 and 14, 16 EHS Health Occupations students traveled to Decatur to compete in State Leadership Conference. As a team, the students placed in their events and against a total of 726 Illinois Health Occupations students, brought back the following accolades: (Top ten finishers in the state were awarded titles of “State Scholar”, “State Scholar Honorable Mention”, “State Scholar Finalist” or “State Scholar Nominee”)

-Display (9th place), Team of: Hannah McLaughlin, Taylor Robinson, Jacob Vandever, and Lavanya Komarraju
- Katty Deininger and Alyssa Grettler in Biomedical Debate (7th place)
- Kassie Klaus and Taylor Ward in Health Career Awareness (8th place)

On March 13 and 14, 16 EHS Health Occupations students traveled to Decatur to compete in State Leadership Conference. As a team, the students placed in their events and against a total of 726 Illinois Health Occupations students, brought back the following accolades: (Top ten finishers in the state were awarded titles of “State Scholar”, “State Scholar Honorable Mention”, “State Scholar Finalist” or “State Scholar Nominee”)

-Display (9th place), Team of: Hannah McLaughlin, Taylor Robinson, Jacob Vandever, and Lavanya Komarraju
- Katty Deininger and Alyssa Grettler in Biomedical Debate (7th place)
- Kassie Klaus and Taylor Ward in Health Career Awareness (8th place)