The NED Show Students at St. Boniface School were treated to a character education mini-series by the NED Show. The show focuses on teaching children about the 21st century character traits: never give up, Encourage others, and his goofy skills to tell the “NED men- sage to the students: Never give up, Encourage others, and Do your best.”

A police officer has been charged with assault after allegedly punching a child at a school resource officer's meeting. The officer, who was identified as Officer Smith, was charged with first-degree assault.

The resolution was approved. The agreement would cover the city's school resource officers. Four police officers currently work in schools as school resource officers and as part of the agreement, the school district reimburses the city for the services of the officers.

The city council passed a resolution establishing the added roles of the Public Safety Committee, the Public Works Planning Committee, and the Administration and Finance Committee. The changes include updating the membership of the committee with current city council members.

The resolution will be presented to the upcoming ACS Committee meeting for final approval before going up for approval by the city council.

The legislation is attached to a settlement agreement which was signed by the Department of Public Safety and the city council. The agreement was signed on April 3 and a preliminary hearing is set for May 18 before Judge Fred Riccio.

The legislation in attachment to the settlement agreement is a county employee who works for the county and is entitled to unemployment benefits. The employee is required to be covered by the county's unemployment insurance plan. The county's response is that we would be paying unemployment benefits, not the employee.
