It is a truism that one of the most significant events in the history of Western civilization is the City of Mesopotamia. The discovery of this ancient city has revolutionized our understanding of human history and culture.

Dr. Allison Thomas in her office...

The concept behind Restore Decor is basic but ingenious. People in the community donate unwanted furniture and home accessories which are either dropped off or picked up and then either sold, donated to a friend, or given away. The furniture and home accessories are then sold at the Restore Decor store for a fraction of what new furniture would cost.

For every blanket the B.F.F. girls manage to sell, they take their proceeds, purchase another blanket, and donate it to the home or organization in need. "It's just crazy."

Dr. Thomason said. "There are hundreds of years of archeology, and years of experiments."

When asked about her next big project, she said that Mesopotamia during her sabbatical. "I really appreciate the verbatim minutes that you had in the packet. It is rare to see a meeting that has a verbatim report,"
