Universities need to rethink their missions

Aldemaro Romero Jr.
CUNY Bernard M Baruch College
FEES

Continued from Page 1

Blaylock has been mounting reserving programs for public libraries and similar facilities such as the Edwardsville Public Library. He stresses, “It's not just a matter of money, it is also about keeping the community in the know.”

Carson has a policy of reserving tennis courts but does not charge visitors who want to play. “If players are present, said, are charged,” he observed.

The library has seen a nine percent increase in the number of people using its services since they started to become a more community-focused library.

Due to the increase in demand, the library has started to offer new services such as yoga classes and meditation groups.

The library is also working on expanding its hours of operation to better serve the community.

Fees

Continued from Page 1

Blaylock has been mounting reservation programs for public libraries and similar facilities such as the Edwardsville Public Library. He stresses, “It’s not just a matter of money, it is also about keeping the community in the know.”

Carson has a policy of reserving tennis courts but does not charge visitors who want to play. “If players are present, said, are charged,” he observed.

The library has seen a nine percent increase in the number of people using its services since they started to become a more community-focused library.

Due to the increase in demand, the library has started to offer new services such as yoga classes and meditation groups.

The library is also working on expanding its hours of operation to better serve the community.

Academy

Continued from Page 1

This year’s academy had 20 participating students from various backgrounds including high school seniors, college students, and professionals.

The students were divided into four groups, each focusing on a different aspect of the academy. The groups worked together to complete challenging projects and tasks.

The academy was led by experienced instructors and guest speakers who shared their knowledge and expertise.

Library

Continued from Page 1

If you’re an absolute novice, you can probably leave with an idea of what kind of device you want to buy. Or if you already have a device, you can leave with a quick overview of how it works.

Players who have reserved a tennis court at the Meyer Y are charged a fixed price for the use of the court, but there are no fees for other activities such as playing fields or pavilions.

Holiday

Continued from Page 1

The annual Alton plans All-Star Restaurant Week takes place from July 17 to 23, offering discounts and specials at participating restaurants.

Visitors can enjoy three-course meals for $20, two-course meals for $15, and $5 off at participating restaurants.

The festival includes live music, fireworks, and other family-friendly activities.

For the intelligence

Cover of one of the earliest English editions of Ortega Y Gasset's book on the mission of the university.