Nurse of the Year nominations sought

For the Intelli

The March of Dimes Missouri Chapter is seeking nurses who exemplify an extraordinary level of care patients and show a passion and customer service.

Any nurses who have been nominated by colleagues or colleagues will review the nominations. Nurses will receive a letter regarding their nominations on November 19, 2016 at the 2016 St. Louis Regional Nurse of the Year event.

Chair Cathy Koeln said, “The nurses are the heart of the continuum of care for so many of our patients and their families. We are proud to be celebrating their work and their dedication to helping others as we celebrate the nurses of Missouri and the East Coast.”

VILLAGE

Automated trash and recycling service begins on May 1.

In addition to the trash pickup, a large item pickup will be completed on each resident’s normal trash collection day.

The village will be offering a drop-off site for electronic recycling. Items can be dropped off at the Village of Edwardsville’s headquarters.

This is a particularly relevant to public institutions and hospitals, since these institutions are not only small in size but also
