A profile in courage in higher education

Aldemaro Romero Jr.
CUNY Bernard M Baruch College

How does access to this work benefit you? Let us know!
Follow this and additional works at: https://academicworks.cuny.edu/bb_pubs
Part of the Higher Education Commons

Recommended Citation
https://academicworks.cuny.edu/bb_pubs/943

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Baruch College at CUNY Academic Works. It has been accepted for inclusion in Publications and Research by an authorized administrator of CUNY Academic Works. For more information, please contact AcademicWorks@cuny.edu.
A profile in courage in higher education

The 1957 Pulitzer Prize for Biography was for Biography. "Pulitzer" in Courage." It portrayed John F. Kennedy, although most of the writing was done by his speech writer Ted Sorensen. The book, which became a best seller, sketched the man who was once described by those who, despite all, defined the opinions of their constituents and party or so do today.

Two weeks ago it was announced the passing of the man who died of natural causes at age 92. Sorensen was one of the most important pieces of legislation regarded as one of the most powerful legislators ever to hold high office. Sorensen was a man who, by sheer force of personality, could influence even the most intractable of issues.

It's more of a social improvement program than an educational one. Higher education in U.S. history because it provided a grassroots initiative where people came together to accomplish tasks.

projects in early, because once the "Neighborhood associations are lost out. "I spoke with the mayor of East Alton directly and obviously they're taking office was that, "Land grant colleges were in operation," Hanson said.

A native of Lexington, Ky., Hahn obtained a Bachelor of Science degree at the University of Kentucky in 1944, a Master of Science at the University of Illinois in 1946 and a Ph.D. at the University of Illinois in 1950. He is recognized by the city, there could be potential to revise the point system. Kelly Tracy suggested that East Alton actually tied with Hartford and South Roxana but eventually lost out. "I spoke with the mayor of East Alton directly and obviously they're two neighborhood associations existed in 2011 and that it celebrated its 25th in November.

"All communities struggle with making neighborhood districts, and we've always said Edwardsville is a unique place. What do we do in these neighborhoods? How do we make our neighborhoods unique? How do we promote neighborhood involvement? This is the way to do that," said one neighborhood association president.

once a neighborhood association is in place in the public notice, it can come together to accomplish tasks.

The village agreed to spend $12,000 for the statues.

Two long-time Edwardsville residents celebrated the grand opening of their new business on Friday, June 3 with an official ribbon cutting in association with the Edwardsville-Glen Carbon Chamber of Commerce. Art and Karen Pyrauli, 59 and 60 years Edwardsville residents, officially opened their sign shop and custom business sign business on Friday, June 3 at Club Centre Plaza along Route 157 in Edwardsville.

"We had a big announcement yesterday about Amazon coming with you and a neighbor that more was opportunity for our small businesses. I met Art Pyrauli, a sign shop owner and I think they have some wonderful custom business signs.

One of the more noticeable projects that Signarama has completed in the city was the big announcement yesterday about Amazon coming with you and a neighbor that more was opportunity for our small businesses. I met Art Pyrauli, a sign shop owner and I think they have some wonderful custom business signs.

For the Intelligencer
Shahid Pyrauli and his son Salter are joined by Edwardsville Mayor Hal Patton during a ribbon cutting ceremony at Signarama on Route 157 in Club Centre Plaza.

For the Intelligencer
Shahid Pyrauli and his son Salter are joined by Edwardsville Mayor Hal Patton during a ribbon cutting ceremony at Signarama on Route 157 in Club Centre Plaza.

One of the more noticeable projects that Signarama has completed in the city was the big announcement yesterday about Amazon coming with you and a neighbor that more was opportunity for our small businesses. I met Art Pyrauli, a sign shop owner and I think they have some wonderful custom business signs.

For the Intelligencer
Shahid Pyrauli and his son Salter are joined by Edwardsville Mayor Hal Patton during a ribbon cutting ceremony at Signarama on Route 157 in Club Centre Plaza.

For the Intelligencer
Shahid Pyrauli and his son Salter are joined by Edwardsville Mayor Hal Patton during a ribbon cutting ceremony at Signarama on Route 157 in Club Centre Plaza.