The meeting started informally at 2:25 p.m. in the hope that more members will arrive around 3 p.m. after their classes. Dr. Berger handed out a form to make a survey of the preferred hours of meeting among the members of the Committee.

It was tentatively agreed that for October the Committee will meet on Oct. 16 and 30 from 3:10 to 4:30 p.m.

When most of the members had arrived, nominations and elections were held for officers of the Committee with the following results:

Vice Chairman - J. Ryan
Secretary - M. Chang

Then, there was open discussion on various subjects - particularly the problem of good instruction and environment and how space should be used in the New Campus to improve instruction.

Finally, it was proposed and seconded that:

The Instruction Committee solicits the Faculty at large for suggestions on how to improve instruction in the New Campus.

An amendment was added to the proposal as follows:

The Instruction Committee urges every Departmental Chairman to inform us regarding any plans that they may have on the use of space in the New Campus for improving instruction.
