

BRONX COMMUNITY COLLEGE
of The City University of New York

MINUTES OF COMMITTEE ON INSTRUCTION, TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 24, 1974

Present: I. Berger, Chairman
D. Albott, V. Arto, M. Chang, C. Connington, J. Davis, D. Frank,
W.C. Fredrickson, S. Gold, D. Hadgis, A. Lessard, W. Sokolsky,
L. Squitieri, J.B. Stuchin, L.V. Toralballa, S. Ukeles, J. Whelan
and M. Wise.

The meeting began at 3:15 p.m. in Room TT 202.

Dr. Berger, the Chairman, announced that he is on sabbatical leave this semester and has asked the Vice Chairman, Prof. W. Hynes, to take his place for this term.

Dr. Chang, the Secretary of the Committee, is also on sabbatical leave this semester.

Hence, the Committee will have to elect a Vice Chairman pro tem and a Secretary pro tem.

Nominations were opened for a Vice Chairman pro tem. The following were nominated:

W. Sokolsky
S. Gold
C. Connington (who declined)

Secret ballots were taken with the following results:

W. Sokolsky - 10 votes
S. Gold - 4 votes

Nominations were then taken for a Secretary pro tem for this semester. M. Wise was nominated but declined. Later during the meeting L. Squitieri volunteered.

Next, Prof. Toralballa gave a talk on "Consciousness Gap in Math Instruction" from his experience in a meeting in Vancouver recently. A discussion followed, and Prof. Toralballa was asked to send for additional copies of this research paper.

Prof. Sokolsky announced that there will be a meeting on "The Improvement of College Instruction" in Amherst in October for five days. Dr. Berger expressed the hope that whoever will attend that meeting will give us a report.

Dr. Berger then distributed four pages of material on the art of questioning. A discussion followed until 4:25 p.m. when the meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

Mabel L. Chang
Mabel L. Chang
Secretary (MLC)

MLC:r