MINUTES OF INSTRUCTION COMMITTEE, WED. NOV. 28, 1979

Present: I. Berger, Chairman
M. Chang, G. Gean, M. Glass, D. Hadgis, D. McCulloch, E. Passer,
M. Pollack, H. Richardson, F. Sharpe, W. Sokolsky and C. Sorge.

The Chairman called the meeting to order at 3:15 p.m. and distributed a xeroxed copy of an article from the New York Times (Nov. 4, 1979) entitled, "The Fumble-rules of Grammar" to those present.

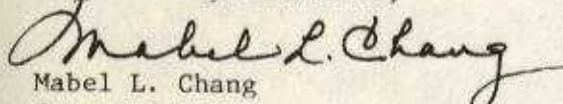

Next, it was moved and seconded that the minutes of the last meeting be approved with the following changes:

1. On line two of the first paragraph the date "December 28" should read "November 28".
2. Professor Sokolsky wanted to amplify the fourth paragraph beginning with "Professor Sokolsky...." by adding the following sentence.
"While wishing it success in its endeavors, Professor Sokolsky was curious as to why the BCC Teaching 'Institute' did not contact the Committee on Instruction to seek its cooperation. The choice of its name is also somewhat pretentious considering that it carries the College's name, but was never officially authorized to do so. 'Study Groups' might seem more appropriate than 'Institute' at this time. One nevertheless wishes it well. The two people involved are good men."

At 3:45 p.m. the Committee went over to Tech I, Room 223 to see a demonstration by Professor Passer on the use of the Student Management System. Professor Passer distributed two pages of instructions to those present before he demonstrated his project of computer-assisted teaching of a chemistry course.

At 4:55 p.m. the meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

Mabel L. Chang
Secretary
