BRONX COMMUNITY COLLEGE
Of The City University of New York

(Committee on Instruction and Faculty Development)

Minutes for Meeting of February 27, 1986

Present: A. Pomerantz (Chairperson)
M. Adeyanju, L. Alpert, M. Glass, D. Hadzic, J. Rempson,
E. Schor, S. Schwartz, H. Skinner, W. Sokolsky, M. Wise.

Announcements

Professor Pomerantz called attention to the following:

An article in the CUNY CLARION, February 1986 entitled "Teaching and Its Just Rewards". The CUNY Faculty Development Program, 1986-87. and the Grants Opportunities Newsletter, January 1986.

Professor Schwartz reported that of the 700 students who attended the Hypertension Clinic, follow-up is being done on those who measured hypertensive. Graduate counselors are participating in the follow-up.

Humanities Division Reception

Professor Pomerantz stated that he and Professor Sokolsky will look at Viewbook in Office of Dean of Academic Affairs in order to celebrate the Achievements of members of the Humanities Division.

Careers Division Reception

Professors Wise and Skinner will review Viewbook for the Careers Division in order to highlight the achievements of those in that division.

Workshop on Faculty and Student Responsibilities and Expectation

Discussion focused on the general format of the workshop, determining levels of expectations (general, curricular) faculty frustration, student difficulties.

Dean Rempson suggested that we explore the possibility of including in this workshop a similar function that is being sponsored by the Student Government.

Professor Sokolsky volunteered to present his "Ten Essentials of Effective Teaching".

Professor Pomerantz suggested having faculty discuss "gateway" courses such as remedial English and Reading which are pre-requisites for other courses.

Professor Skinner proposed that the topic of the workshop be broadened to "Faculty and Student Responsibilities and Expectation: An Action Oriented Approach", and that there be constructive follow-up to the workshop with specific recommendations.

Professor D. Hadzic asked to be excused from the subcommittee of this workshop as she is involved in work on the Faculty Viewbook.

It was recommended that the subcommittee including Dean Rempson, Dr. Alpert, and Professor Adeyanju meet to further discuss the format for the workshop.

The meeting adjourned at 4:00 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

M. Adeyanju
