I. Announcements

A. Fifty people have signed up for the Polaroid Workshop.

B. We may be given the task of describing what we expect our students to be like in the year 2000. (This came from Senate discussion.)

C. Chair Pomerantz distributed invitations to the reception for the Humanities Division given by Dean Carl J. Polowczyk on 18 Nov. 1993 at 1 p. m. at the Gould Student Center, Room 311.

II. Old Business

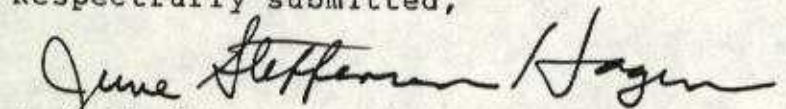

The subcommittee formed to advise Student Government about the faculty evaluation procedure had not met. Dr. Pomerantz said he would ask Mr. Wooley to chair this subcommittee since it is an ad hoc advisory group to the Student Government.

III. New Business

In response to Dean Fuller's request, we helped revise the description for the workshop, Faculty and Student Responsibilities and Expectations on our Multi-Cultural Campus, to be offered in March 1994.

Next Meeting: February 1994.

Respectfully submitted,

June Steffensen Hagen, Secretary Pro Tem
