Curriculum Committee Sub-committee on Continuing Education

November 9, 1999, 2:00 p.m.
Colston Hall, Room 644

MINUTES

Present: Howard Clampman, Karen Cox, Kenneth Fogarty, Luis Montenegro, Carin Savage; Guests: Alberto Forbes, Rolly Wiltshire

1. Meeting was called to order at 2:15 p.m.
2. Two agenda items, update on new Continuing Education courses and discussion of classroom space issues, were postponed to the next meeting.
2. Carin Savage discussed ways Continuing Education was partnering with outside organizations to bring special services and skills-training to BCC. She introduced Rolly Wiltshire, from the Research Foundation, to discuss a partnership with Cisco Systems.
3. Rolly Wiltshire gave a presentation on his recent involvement with a unique Cisco training program, leading to certification as a Cisco network technician. Rolly shared on-line training practices, examples of curriculum, program costs, and future educational and career possibilities for BCC students. The program was met with enthusiasm from the body.
4. The next meeting was scheduled for November 30, 1999 at 2 pm.
5. Meeting was adjourned at 3:10 p.m.
