GSUC ARCHIVES III

PERIODICALS

Note: The materials here were received from the Office of Public Affairs, the GSUC Library, and, in 2012, the Doctoral Students Council. Periodicals are listed alphabetically by title (omitting “The”), with brief descriptions, identification of the publisher(s), and the dates of the earliest and latest issues included. Under many titles some issues may be missing. In most cases there is only one copy of each issue, but occasionally a second copy (if it was available) has been retained.

With very few exceptions, only periodicals with substantial sequential runs are included here; i.e., those of which there was only one issue or a few scattered issues are usually not here but will be found under the name of the issuing office or organization in the “Subjects” or the “Centers and Institutes” record groups.

There is no index or other guide to the contents of this collection, but duplicate copies of issues covering major events (e.g., inauguration of a GSUC president) will be found in the other, appropriate record groups.

[revised and updated as of March 27, 2013]

Advocate: the graduate students newspaper, published six or more times a year, Sept. 1989-May 2001, April 2002-Nov. 2009. Stored in 2 flat oversize boxes on the top shelf. Several issues are missing. For predecessor see BM04 [below]

Alumni News. See Doctoral Alumni Association Newsletter [below]

BM04: predecessor to The Advocate, published monthly Oct. 1987-May 1989. A few issues are missing. It was named for the location of the editorial office (basement mezzanine 04). The file includes a copy of the mimeographed “Ur-Newspaper” Oct. 5-7 1970, the first GSUC student publication

Brooklyn College Graduate Student Newsletter 1988

Only one issue, March/April 1988, has been transferred to the Archives. The following legend is below the title: “Published regularly—Every now and then”

Centerline: bulletin from Pres. Horowitz with information for faculty, students and staff Oct. 1996-Feb. 2005. No. 44 (spring or summer 2004) is missing

Centerpoint: a journal of interdisciplinary studies, spring 1974-fall 1981, incomplete.

Originally intended as a quarterly. Succeeded by Thesis [q.v. below]

Clarion: newspaper of the CUNY Professional Staff Congress (PSC) monthly (?) during the academic year. The GSUC Library received issues regularly but did not maintain a consistent collection and stopped collecting issues in spring 1997. It transferred to the Archives all that had been preserved: issues of Feb. 28 and May 2 and 31, 1974, and Nov. 1989-March 1997. They are stored in an oversize flat box on the top shelf

Computer Center Newsletter: 2 folders, 1986-1995 and 1980-1985 (incomplete)

CUNY Graduate School Magazine. See Thesis [below]

CUNY Matters: newsletter published by the CUNY Office of University Relations about 4 times in an academic year; 3 folders, winter 1994-summer 2004, including a cumulative index at the start of the 1st folder

Doctoral Alumni Association Newsletter: Oct. 1970-Jan. 1973, Aug. 2000 (incomplete)

Doctoral Students Council. For The Advocate and BM04, see separate listings [above].
