THE FREE ACADEMY.

The Free Academy, of the city of New York, was established in 1848, by the Board of Education of the city of New York, in pursuance of an Act of the Legislature of the State, passed May 7, 1847, for the purpose of providing higher education for such pupils of the common schools as may avail themselves of its advantages. It is under the superintendence of the Board of Education, and the care, management and government of an Executive Committee appointed by the Board; and all its expenses, including instruction, apparatus, collections, books and stationary, are paid out of the public treasury.

The students are admitted in annual classes, and the full course of study embraces five years.

It is situated in Twenty-third street, at the corner of Lexington Avenue; and its academical exercises, during term time, continue daily (except Saturday and Sunday,) from a quarter before 9 o'clock, A.M., to 3 o'clock, P.M.
