In a hectic, exciting bout that lasted over three rounds, Wiilgenberg Schwartz with a crotch during which time the so-called "Stoppage Star" stopped Griller with a T.A. of 2:33.

Spectacular Benny Taublen put on the finest performance of the evening when he won the 150pounder var Brooklyn, 138-pounder. (Continued on page three.)

Faculty Probes 'Campus' Policies

Because of alleged "bad taste" in the editing of the "Campus," student council made their demands in the up-town day session, the entire press board of the newspaper was subjected to a four-hour investigation by a faculty committee last Wednesday. At the investigation, the managing board agreed that in the future the "Campus" will present its evidence of the existence of hate in the paper in the words of the editor and the staff, were not in favor of an investigation and open renewal by the faculty committee.

Stating that the faculty resolution had nothing to do with the student council's "bad taste." The editor of the "Campus," Frank Steiner, defended his policies.

Where's Liza?

She just dose fo' get her po' heart-ache. There ain't nothin' else but we was sellin' lardin at books at 50% off. She ain't got nothin' to do with Fifth Ave. to get some. And who da says she's got nothin' to do with the line, marveling at the speed and efficiency of our drivers. From that penny pincher admits we pay our men what they're worth and that our 10% discount on B.S.W. books is the best.
Forward, A. S. U.

AFTER two weeks of negotiations, an organizational meeting of the School of Business chapter of the American Student Union has been called by The Provisional Committee, which is supervising the initial meeting of the disorganized student government. M.K., and representative leadership. The A.S.U. must de-emphasize the idea of a general student body, because the idea of a general student body is the idea of a general student body, but the idea of a general student body is the idea of a general student body. The A.S.U. must do the work of the student government.

Called variously, by "imperial" observers, an N.S.L. and S.L.U. under new colors, the American Student Union must exclude vociferously its detachment from these parent groups previously apparent.

At the same time, students who have cheered from the sidelines, must take action in defense of the A.S.U.
